Blue Note All Stars to bring jazzy sound to Fitzwilly's stage

BY HEATHER BRONDY
The Battalion

All local band junkies who are looking to hear something a little old, a little new, sometimes borrowed and certainly blue, can cruise by Fitzwilly's tomorrow night for the Blue Note All Stars.

Long-time talents Renn Carson (guitar and vocals), Ed Davis (bass and vocals), Michael Holleman (drum and vocals), Jay Pruitt (keyboards) and Ralph Moncivais (sax and vocals) have been playing together as the Blue Note All Stars for two and a half years.

Band manager John Jones said many of the All Star members have been playing blue notes off and on for almost 20 years.

"Adding up all their experience, there's about 175 years of great music between these guys," Jones said.

The band was formed locally when Jones, Carson and ex-drummer Tony Walker (now currently playing with Seth Walker) decided to take their act to the stage.

"We started playing out at the Blue's Factory, Burton Creek Pub and Third Floor Cantina," Carson said.

"And now, we're mainly over at Fitzwilly's and Legends, which has been a lot of fun too."

For those who missed the vintage Blue Note shows and are curious about the All Star flavor, according to Jones and Carson the band is not so easy to slap with a label.

"These guys are just so talented, they can play anything really," Jones said.

"They go from jazz to blues to rock; wherever you want to go, they can do it."

Staying true to Texan however, the Blue Note All Stars also play some country for the cowboys and girls up a little dirt.

Shae Love, a bartender at Fitzwilly's, said she is about the Blue Note jams.

"It's always fun when they play here because it's music, and everyone gets started dancing," Love said.

The All Stars keep the scooting with both cover

"Adding up all their experience, there's about 175 years of great music between these guys."

Blue Note All Stars

and starts becoming hard and we're not really looking that."

Despite its laissez-faire attitude toward success the Note All Stars does hope to release an album in the future, though an actual has not yet been confirmed.

"We'd like to have a CD pretty soon here," Carson said.

"It's just tough because we have different schedules it's hard to find the time."

Since there is no CD available, the only way to turn the Blue Note All Stars is son.
