Cowboys complete comeback, defeat Redskins 41-35

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — In the history of the Cowboys-Redskins rivalry, give this game four stars — and color them blue and silver.

Dallas matched its biggest comeback ever Sunday, rallying from a 21-point deficit in the fourth quarter to beat Washington 41-35 on Rocket Ismail's 76-yard touchdown catch in overtime.

"Nobody thought it was going to be easy, but nobody thought it was going to be like this," Cowboys tight end David LaFleur, who caught two touchdown passes, said as he smiled and shook his head in amazement.

On the game-winning play, Troy Aikman faked a handoff while Ismail sprinted from the right slot down the center of the field. With the safeties off balance, Ismail easily got behind the defense and was wide open for Aikman's fifth touchdown pass 4:09 into the extra period.

"The whole objective after the fake is to see if the safeties had bitten and if Rocket is back there," Aikman said. "When I looked, I couldn't see any defensive guys back there. That ball couldn't come down fast enough into his hands."

"I think this is probably the wildest game I've ever been a part of."

Aikman was 28-for-49 with 362 yards and three interceptions.

Dallas has rallied from 21 points down to win once before, 30-27 in overtime against New Orleans in 1984. It was also the third time the Cowboys have made up a big deficit to beat the Redskins, coming back from 20 points down in 1983 and 17 points in 1979.

"It gives you more to build on than if you win 28-14," Dallas coach Chan Gailey said. "[Ismail] caught it, and then I think I breathed."

The Cowboys trailed 35-14 going into the fourth quarter, but sent the game into overtime on Michael Irvin's 12-yard reception with 1:46 left. The crucial extra point by Richie Cunningham hit the left upright before going through.

Washington had a chance to win the game on the last play of regulation, but holder Matt Turk fumbled the snap on what would have been a 41-yard field-goal attempt by Brett Conway.

The loss hit the Redskins hard. They collapsed in last year's season-opener against the New York Giants and then lost their next six in a row. They had hoped to put that behind them while impressing new owner Dan Snyder.

"I think this is probably the wildest game I've ever been a part of."

Dallas quarterback

"Having things fall apart, especially in a big game like this, it was a hard loss," defensive tackle Dan Wilkinson said. "We're by no means going to throw in the towel, but this hurts right down to your heart."

Cornerback Deion Sanders, who had toe surgery in April, warmed up but did not play. With Sanders, Kevin Smith (back), Leon Lett (suspension) and Quentin Coryatt (Achilles' tendon) missing from the Dallas defense, Washington had no problems moving the ball for three quarters.

The Redskins were in Cowboys territory on nine of their first 10 offensive possessions, failing to score only when they stopped themselves. Stephen Davis and Brad Johnson both lost fumbles inside the Dallas 15 in the first half.

Picking on reserve cornerbacks Kevin Mathis and Charlie Williams, Johnson marked his Redskins debut by completing 22 of 30 passes for 382 yards with touchdown throws of 41 yards to Michael Westbrook and 50 yards to Albert Connell. Davis had his first 100-yard game, rushing for 109 yards on 24 carries and two touchdowns.

"We felt that if they didn't make big plays that we would be all right," Williams said. "They made a couple, but everything worked out."

On their first two possessions, the Cowboys marched 80 and 82 yards for 14 points against a first-string defense that did not allow a touchdown in preseason. Aikman was as precise as ever, completing 6-of-9 with two drops, including scoring passes of 15 and 14 yards to LaFleur.

SOCCER

Aggies making the GTE Soccer All-Classic Team were Reynolds, Fendley, Peters, senior midfielder Mandy Davidson, freshman forward Heather Ragsdale and junior forward Nicky Thrasher.

Guerrieri said he was pleased with his team's performance and thought the tournament was a success. "Any time we can get two wins against out-of-region ranked opponents, it's great," he said. "Friday night we looked as sharp as we've looked all year, and then today we weren't as sharp, but we found a way to play to our strengths and get through some hard times."

The Aggies take the week off as they prepare for this weekend's Adidas Classic in Klein, Texas.

The team will face the third-ranked Notre Dame Fighting Irish Friday at 4 p.m., and the Vanderbilt University Commodores at 2 p.m. on Sunday.

"I told the team during a timeout that this team was not going to go away," A&M volleyball coach Laurie Corbelli said. "WSU made a string of errors, but because they are so athletic, they stay on you. I never felt we would let it slip away, but we did lose some intensity and concentration in spurts."

The third and final game of the match came to a quick end with the help of the Aggie offense, which recorded a .208 hitting percentage, compared to a .018 hitting percentage by the Cougars, in game three.

Woolsey led all hitters with 13 kills, while Strickland recorded 10. Career highs were posted by Strickland with eight blocks and Gibson with 21 digs.

"This was a challenging match because WSU is very athletic and their left-side hitters are very good," Corbelli said.

The Aggies' second match, the championship match, came against the host team, the University of New Mexico. A&M did not waste any time and defeated UNM 15-6, 15-6, 15-7 for the title.

Strickland and Woolsey were both named to the All-Tournament team.

The Aggies' next match will be Thursday, Sept. 16 when they play host to Santa Clara at 7 p.m. to kick off the Texas A&M Tournament.
