Trinidad returns celebrati

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — They chanted his name, salsa songs written in his blared from giant speakers. Revelers jammed highways to get a glimpse of him. Felix Trinidad, a comic hero come home, was Puerto Rico on Monday, comed by thousands amid a zzy of adulation and pride.

At an airport news conference, Trinidad joked about his over Oscar De La Hoya's night in Las Vegas.

"He had a different style, but he was a champion," Trinidad said. "He was a champion."

Trinidad's plane landed at Juan amid roars of "Tito in the W. Fans waved the U.S. flag and lone-star flag and placards, saying "Gallito castao!" — but a punch for "Top-class fighting com. Even

Gov. Pedro Rosselló clearly praised Trinidad for "giving Russia the name of Puerto Rico." Now, among the dignitaries on the "I promised you this and I did it," Trinidad said. Triumph is for all of Puerto Rico. There is no doubt now that the best boxers are in Puerto Rico. Pound for pound they are the most heart."

Police tried to close off the make way for a victory parade, but delirious fans ignored the officers and by. Others abandoned their in an airport logjam and the last mile.

PETERS Continued from Page 11 the capacity to get up and the field for 90 minutes. Her thing is that she reads the very well; she's a student of game."

Despite being good at different positions, she always meet with Peter approval. "Outside-mid used to be least favorite position in field," she said. "It's one of spots where you run all day and don't get to see much, but it's growing now."

Peters now looks at her defense as a bridge between defense and offense that enough threat to draw from the opposition.

"I have a big defensive addition to an attacking role. "Our outside-mid back on 'D' (defense), on backfield, and then we also up on offense and attack."

"I've always had an attitude, but defense is still grow on me. I'll never give offense, though."

Her ability is even more evident when Peters' faces opponents. Her endurance determination result in very petitive one-on-one soccer she is seldom beat.

"What makes her so different from other players is her ethic," Thrasher said. "She runs up and down the field long, and that's what you play successfully in the midfield position."

"She's definitely the engine on the team. Her work ethic endurance pay off for us runs all day long and will out any opponent that can match speed. She's extremely tough, beat on the field."

Recruited out of Norman School in Norman, Okla., was a standout for leading to postseasons. The Aggie team recognized her ability looked to take advantage of was never expected she perform to her current level.

"She's exceeded our expectations of her," Guerrieri recruited her because of her er ship. The thing that attracted me to her game was her ship, her desire to lead by example and how she is away from field. Those three things payed bigger dividends than ever imagined."

Peters has found yet another position this season she can in and make plays for the team. Not only will she continue to big presence in the A&M offensive game, but will help pressure with the defense.

Peters hopes to continue to lead the Aggies in their climb the national ranks.

"I just want to see our team well this year," she said. "I game we step on the field have to keep earning respect
