Even with the hype their performances may receive from the Willie Nelson show, Clayton said the band is doing what they can to make purchasing the CD as easy as possible.

"You can get the CD at local stores, and then we're also trying to make them available on line, so we'll see how that goes."

Neve Campbell relives kissing-contest defeat

NEW YORK (AP) — Neve Campbell could have been a kissy-face contender.

The "Party of Five" actress told Cosmopolitan that a kid named Larry was the first boy she kissed. It happened on the playground one day in her Ontario hometown of Guelph.

"I was, like, 6 years old, and we were having a kissing contest in school, to see who could kiss the longest," Campbell said in the magazine's October issue.

"And Larry had had a peanut butter sandwich, and he had the worst breath on earth. And I was mad at him the rest of the day because we lost."

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Dodger announcer lauds Costner's baseball skills

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When it comes to baseball movies and actors portraying ballplayers, announcer Vin Scully has seen them all. And he said Kevin Costner finally got it right.

Even better, Costner can actually play the game, said the Los Angeles Dodgers announcer, who has a part in Costner's new movie, For Love of the Game.

Scully said neither Gary Cooper, who played Lou Gehrig in the 1942 Pride of the Yankees, nor William Bendix, who starred in the 1948 Babe Ruth Story, was believable.

He was not too sure about Costner in Bull Durham or Field of Dreams either. After For Love of the Game, Scully said Costner "might be the best."

Former 'Grace' star says drugs, alcohol killed show

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former "Grace Under Fire" star Brett Butler said drugs and booze led to the end of her show and made a mess of her career.

"I fell down hard and went 'boom,' and I may never make it up to some of the people," she said in an "Entertainment Tonight" interview. "I lost a lot and created a great deal of wreckage and don't have anybody for myself."

Butler said she has since kicked and been sober for more than a year.

Former president Carter putting old age on

ATLANTA (AP) — Jimmy Carter has little time for getting old.

Following a black-tie birthday bash at his home in Plains, he plans trips to Switzerland and Norway next month for his Carter Center.

"We have already begun to cut back," he said. "One of the nice things about being president is [my wife] Rosalynn can choose what items on a very long me-
