Patterson, who started in 67 of the 107 games she appeared in for the Aggies from 1995-99, fills the vacancy created when assistant coach Antrice McGill left the team last month.

"I am excited to get the chance to stay here at A&M to start my coaching career," Patterson said. "Playing for Coach Gillom was a great way to finish my college career. A&M is a great place and now I will be able to contribute to the success of our team from a coach's standpoint."

During her A&M playing days, Patterson compiled 309 assists to rank No. 6 in Aggie history.

and playoff games, still holds the record for career rebounds with "Wilt was one of the greatest ever, and we will never see another one like him," Abdul-

Jabbar said. Chamberlain, who began his professional career with the Harlem Globetrotters in 1958, was one of only two men to win the MVP and rookie of the year awards in the same season

He was also MVP from 1966 through 1968. He led the NBA in scoring seven straight seasons, 1960-66, and led the league in rebounding 11 of his 14 seasons One of his most famous records is the 100 points he scored in a single game in the Philadelphia Warriors' 169-147 defeat of the New York Knicks on March 2, 1962, in Hershey, Pa. The record has not even been threatened. In the 1961-62 season with Philadelphia, he averaged a record 50.4 points a game, and averaged 30.1 for his career. He also was one of the most versatile big men ever, leading the league in assists with 702 in 1967-68. Chamberlain led his team into the playoffs 13 times, winning two world championships. The first came in 1966-67 with the 76ers, the second in 1971-72 with the Lakers.
