Ramsey graves defaced

MARIETTA, Ga. (AP) — Protesters protesting the lack of justice in the slaying of a 12-year-old girl's grave yesterday were defaced.

Someone had scratched "Justice in U.S.A." in red on the plain marble slab covering the grave at St. James Church Cemetery, police said.

The vandalism was reported Monday, five days after a jury in Boulder, Colo., ended a 13-month investigation of the killing without indicting anyone.

Panel appointed by Colorado Gov. Bill Owens is now considering whether a special prosecutor should be appointed.

The child beauty queen was found dead in her family's home in 1996. Her parents, Patsy Ramsey, buried her in Marietta, northwest of Atlanta area.

The couple has insisted they had nothing to do with their daughter's death, although police have said they were under an "umbrella of suspicion."
