

"Life: Be In It"

WHAT: Dynamic presentation by the nationally known Carolyn Cornelison, Ph.D.
WHEN: Tuesday, November 16, 1999 11:30am-1:30pm
WHERE: Press Box at Kyle Field

If you would like to hear a highly entertaining speaker, have a delicious free lunch, get a free BONFIRE t-shirt and see Kyle Field from the pressbox, e-mail the information to PattiC@stulife2.tamu.edu, drop this in campus mail, or bring it by our office.

Alcohol and Drug Education Programs
 222 Beutel Health Center MS 1257
 Att: Patti Collins
 Ph: 845-0280
 http://stulife.tamu.edu

Name _____
 e-mail address _____
 local address _____
 telephone number _____

SEATING IS LIMITED

first 50 entries will receive an invitation

Ready to Begin Your Future Today?

Today's employers are looking for applicants with real-world work experience. Don't get left behind!

UCS currently has many part-time opportunities for individuals with all types of majors and backgrounds that can offer you the experience you need to succeed in the real world!

Part-Time Job Opportunities:

- ◆ Customer Service
- ◆ Clerical/Office Support
- ◆ Hardware Repair and Support
- ◆ PC Support/Help Desk
- ◆ Inventory Control

Get your career started now with a proven leader!

To apply, give us a call at 595-2609. EOE.

UCS...A Tradition in Quality,
 A Commitment to Aggieland!

www.universalcomputersys.com

You are The Aggie Network.

And we need your stories.

Okay Ags, The Association of Former Students needs your help. We know you have at least one special story to tell in regards to your Texas A&M Class Ring — maybe a romance, a friendship made, a business deal struck, a door opened by a fellow Ag. Whatever it is, we want to hear it. As a matter of fact, we might even use it in the Texas Aggie magazine over the next year. So get out a pen and paper or boot up that laptop and get to writing. You can mail, fax or email your story to us using the information below. You know our story, and we're waiting for yours.

— Porter Garner '79
 Associate Executive Director
 The Association of Former Students

We are The Aggie Network!

505 GEORGE BUSH DR., COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS 77840-2918 (409)845-7514
 FAX: (409)458-2297 EMAIL: RingStory@afs.tamu.edu www.aggienetwork.com

NATION

Page 10 • Friday, October 22, 1999

Senate majority pro-choice

WASHINGTON (AP) — In its first ever referendum on Roe vs. Wade, the Senate went on record yesterday as saying that the landmark abortion ruling established "an important constitutional right" and should not be overturned.

The nonbinding resolution, sure to provide fodder for 2000 campaign ads, won near-party-line support from the Senate's Democrats, and eight Republicans joined them to ensure passage.

"This is going to be an absolutely huge issue next year," declared Sen. Barbara Boxer, D-Calif. "Now we see the extremists in the United States Senate."

Republicans said the vote was irrelevant to the main legislation up for debate: a ban on certain late-term abortions sponsored by Sen. Rick Santorum, R-Pa. President Clinton, who has vetoed two earlier bans, also opposes the bill because it lacks an exception for women whose health is endangered by the pregnancy.

Santorum, whose bill includes an exception for pregnant women whose lives are endangered, described the debate as a moral attack on a brutal medical procedure that involves partially delivering a live fetus before emptying its skull and killing it.

"This is not an attempt to change or overturn Roe vs. Wade."

—Sen. Rick Santorum R-Pa.

"This is not an attempt to change or overturn Roe vs. Wade," he said. "At least we should be able to draw the line that when a child is in the process of being born, it's too late to have an abortion."

But Democrats declared a tactical victory based on an amendment to that bill, which passed the day. By 51-47, senators passed a nonbinding resolution that the 1973 Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion.

Sponsored by Sen. Harkin, D-Iowa, a three-year amendment for whom the late-term abortion issue caused trouble in the most recent re-election.

"It is the sense of the Senate that Roe v. Wade was an erroneous decision and secures an important constitutional right and such a resolution should not be overturned."

Eight Republicans joined the chamber's 45 Democrats in support of it. The GOP senators who were Sens. John Chafee, R-Island, Ben Nighthorse, Colorado, Susan Collins, James Jeffords of Vermont, Snowe of Maine, Arlen Specter of Pennsylvania, Ted Stevens and John Warner of Virginia.

51 injured in school bus, dump truck collision

CENTRAL BRIDGE, N.Y. (AP) — A bus carrying second-graders to a pumpkin hunt collided with a dump truck at a dangerous intersection yesterday, injuring 51 youngsters and adults.

One child was in critical condition, and three youngsters and an adult were in serious condition yesterday afternoon.

The bus was carrying 44 children, four teachers and four adult chaperones from Albany School No. 18 on a field trip to the Pumpkin Patch, a popular Halloween spot 30 miles west of Albany.

"The kids are going to be traumatized," Sandra Bowles, whose 7-year-old granddaughter escaped injury in the crash, said. "They are so young."

The empty dump truck, registered to a construction company, was pulling a trailer when it struck the back right side of the bus.

The bus spun 180 degrees and rolled to a rest in grass about 500 feet from the point of impact. The collision caused the front end of the bus to dip onto the pavement, knocking the hood off the vehicle.

The truck was traveling on Route 7, which has a 55 mph speed limit. The bus was traveling on Route 30A, which has a 30 mph speed limit.

At the intersection of the two roads, there is a flashing yellow light for traffic on Route 7 and flashing red on Route 30A.

Fire Chief Eric Johnson said it is one of the most dangerous intersections in the area, although he said this was the worst accident he has seen in his 25 years with the department.

The bus driver, William J. Treacy, 79, and the truck driver, Edward Cook, 52, were not injured.

FTC slack on funeral home

WASHINGTON (AP) — government lacks adequate oversight of funeral industry practices, according to a congressional report made public yesterday.

The Federal Trade Commission "does not have a systematic or structured process for measuring funeral homes' compliance" with rules for the treatment of consumers, included the General Accounting Office, the investigate Congress.

The FTC disputed the findings and said it was satisfied that compliance with consumer protection rules has improved.

The GAO report also faulted the FTC for not enforcing penalties against funeral homes' cemeteries found violating consumer service rules.

<http://stulife.tamu.edu/ocss>

Searching for Roommates?

Searching for Housing?

It's the best way to find roommates and housing options in the Bryan/College Station area.

Adult, Graduate and Off Campus Student Services
 112 John J. Koldus
 (409)845-1741
 ochousing@tamu.edu

You are invited to attend
MILLENNIUM OF PROPHECY
 DON'T MISS THE OPENING NIGHT!
"The Millennial Man"

STARTS:
Friday, October 22
 7:00 PM

At Texas A&M
 Koldus Building, Room 111

Continuing Nightly except Mondays and Thursdays through November 20, 1999

For Information:
 email: matus@math.tamu.edu
 phone: 775-5122

A continuing multi-media series • All seats are FREE
 FREE study materials • Designed for busy people
 Relaxed atmosphere • Come as you are

Sponsored by the Adventist Christian Fellowship