AGGIE RING ORDERS

The Association OF FORMER STUDENTS

CLAYTON W. WILLIAMS, JR. ALUMNI CENTER
DEADLINE: DECEMBER 8, 1999

- ### Undergraduate Student Requirements:
- You must be a degree seeking student and have completed all of the following requirements to order an Aggie ring:
- 95 cumulative undergraduate credit hours reflected on the Texas A&M University Student Information Management System degree audit. (A course passed with a grade letter of D or better, which is repeated and passed, cannot count as additional credit hours unless the catalog states the course may be repeated for credit. The lowest grade is the repeated course.)
  - 60 undergraduate credit hours must have been completed in residence at Texas A&M University if your first semester at Texas A&M University was January 1994 or thereafter, or if you attended prior to 1994 and do not qualify under the successful semester requirement defined in the following paragraph. The 60 credit hour requirement will be waived if your degree is conferred with less than 60 A&M credit hours. The waiver will not be granted until after your degree is posted to screens #123 & #136 of the Student Information Management System.
  - 30 undergraduate credit hours must have been completed in residence at Texas A&M University, providing that prior to January 1, 1994, you were enrolled at Texas A&M University and successfully completed either a fall/spring semester or summer term (I and II or 10 weeks) as a full-time student in good standing (A full-time student is defined in the university catalog as one that completes 12 credit hours with a 2.0 GPR in a spring or fall semester; or 4 credit hours with a 2.0 GPR in a 10 week session.)
- Please remember that you will lose resident credits if you pass a course at A&M with a D or better and retake it at another institution and make a higher grade. The lowest grade is always deducted by the university as a repeated class.
- 2.0 cumulative GPR at Texas A&M University.
  - Be in good standing with the University, including no registration or transcript blocks for past due fees, loans, parking tickets, returned checks, etc.

- ### Graduate Student Requirements:
- If you are a December 1999 degree candidate and do not have an Aggie ring from a prior degree, you may place an order after you meet the following requirements:
- Your degree is conferred and posted on the Texas A&M University Student Information Management System; and
  - You are in good standing with the University, including no registration or transcript blocks for past due fees, loans, parking tickets, returned checks, etc.
- However, if you have completed all of your course work prior to this semester and have been cleared by the thesis clerk, you may request a "letter of completion" from the Office of Graduate Studies (providing it is not past their deadline). The original letter of completion, with the seal, may be presented to the Ring Office in lieu of your degree being posted.

Family alleges attack by drunk UT fans

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Members of a Nebraska family who attended the Big 12 championship game at the Alamodome claim they were attacked by drunken University of Texas-Austin fans who were angry that the Longhorns had lost.

The incident started with heckling and ended with a broken nose, a chipped tooth, a swollen jaw, bruises and cuts for the family members, Don Losole Jr., 30, a San Antonio food salesman, said.

His father and three brothers were visiting from Omaha and attended the game between Texas and Nebraska Saturday.

The Losole family was seated in the Texas section and openly cheered for the Cornhuskers, wearing red and white team colors amid a sea of Texas burnt orange.

Taunts started immediately, but the tone turned meaner as Nebraska closed in on its 22-6 victory, Losole said.

"They were ranting and raving about how they wanted to beat us up," he was quoted as saying in yesterday's San Antonio Express-News. "It got worse with the alcohol. I'd say 90 percent of it had to do with alcohol being served at the Alamodome."

When the game ended and a physical confrontation seemed imminent, the Losoles hung back from the crowds leaving the stadium in hopes of avoiding a fight, Losole said.

The assailants waited for them at an exit, the family said.

Somebody shouted, "We're going to show you how to make a Texas sandwich," according to the Losoles.

"It was the scariest moment of my life," Dave Losole, 29, Don's brother, said.

Allegedly beaten by a UT fan

Dave Losole said he spotted a San Antonio police officer at a lower level wearing a full uniform and gun and asked him for help, but the officer brushed off his request, reportedly telling him to "calm down."

As the Losole family tried to leave, the Longhorn fans rushed the group, the Losoles said.

Both Losole brothers estimated about four or five Longhorn fans tackled each of them. Don Losole said he saw his 51-year-old father, get punched in the side of the head.

Security guards broke up the melee, and police ordered the group to scatter but made no arrests, Dave Lasole said.

The family members later filed a report with police at Methodist Hospital. The police report classified the case as an assault with bodily injury.

Raymond Roberts, a homicide detective who has worked security at the Alamodome about six times, said police would not ignore a plea for help.

The Losole family first leveled the accusation in the Omaha World-Herald, saying a mob of about 15 Longhorn fans attacked them.

The article set off a flurry of messages to the Nebraska newspaper's Internet site. Some messages called Longhorns "classless" and cast a shadow over Texans in general.

By late Sunday, the sparring between loyalists of both teams had spread to the Web pages of the Austin American-Statesman.

Some Longhorns played down what they saw as a typical post-game scuffle. Others were embarrassed by the allegations.

Patricia Ohlendorf, vice president for administration at UT, urged San Antonio police to investigate the matter.

Forbes beats Bush to punch in Texas

AUSTIN (AP) — Steve Forbes beat George W. Bush to take the lead in the Texas governor's race.

Forbes, the millionaire publishing executive from Bedford, N.J., was the first presidential hopeful listed by the Republican Party as filing for Texas' March 14 primary.

Forbes filed his papers with the Texas GOP Friday, the front-runner in a number of national polls, plans to file for the Texas ballot "in the near future," campaign spokesman Steve McClellan said yesterday.

Filing for spots on the Republican and Democratic primary ballots continues through Jan. 10.

Other Republicans include three incumbent Supreme Court Justices — Gonzales, who was appointed by Bush after Democrat Raul G. G. Alar stepped down; and Justice Hecht, who has served on the bench since 1989, and Justice Owen, who took office in 1997.

Pat Barber, a Colorado attorney who has battled state over a billboard that said "Just Say No to Searches," filed for the GOP nomination.

Place 2 on the Texas Court Criminal Appeals.
