Texas A&M Singing Cadets Auditions

We are located in MSC 003 (that's downstairs next to Hullabaloo)

Since 1894 there has been a vocal music group associated with Texas A&M. In 1940, we became known as the "Singing Cadets" and grew to receive national acclaim. The group performs 50-60 concerts each year which include performances throughout the state as well as many special performances. These include things like opening day for the Astros, Miss Texas pageants, Shania Twain, dinners for former Presidents of the U.S., and many others. We are comprised of 60-70 male Aggies where membership in the corps is NOT required. If you love to sing and are willing to work hard, then come join us, the "Voice of Aggieland."
