Women's tennis downs Tide, 6-0

BY BLAINE DIONNE
The Battalion

Alabama's war cry was reversed last night by the Texas A&M women's tennis team: instead of ROLL TIDE, the Tide got rolled.

The Aggies soundly defeated the Crimson Tide by a score of 6-0. Senior Kathryn Scott helped lead the Aggies, pushing their season record to 8-7 and over the .500 mark for the first time in approximately one month.

Scott dispensed with her opponent, Alabama's Becca Baum, in quick fashion by a score of 6-3, 6-0. Afterwards, Scott said she was pleased with her performance against Baum. "I thought that I started a little bit slow," Scott said. "But I picked it up after that and I felt like I overpowered her."

Freshman Cassie Hass defeated Bama's Millie Begovic 6-2, 6-3. After her match, the freshman said she was happy with how she played.

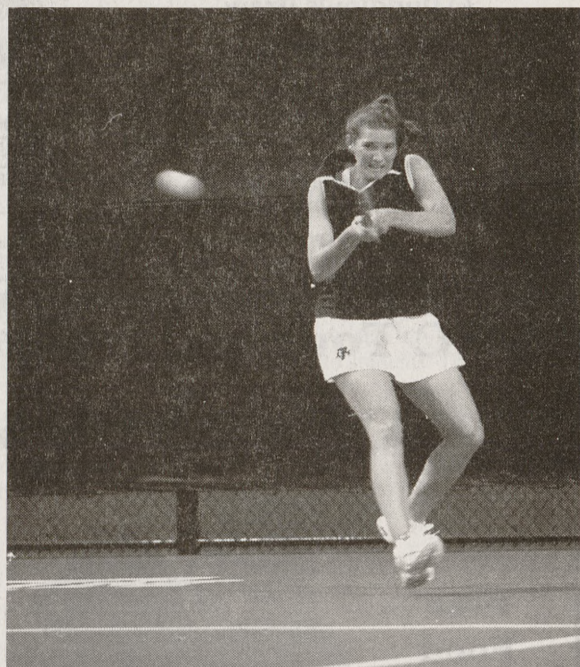

"I was playing probably the best I've played so far this year," Hass said.

Also winning in straight sets for the Aggies were sophomore Martina Nedorostova (6-4, 6-2) and freshman Olivia Karlikova (6-2, 6-1).

Alabama fared no better in doubles action, with the Aggies sweeping the Tide 8-6, 8-6, 9-7. While the end result may have been what women's tennis coach Bobby Kleinecke wanted, how his team started doubles play was not.

"I didn't think we played extremely well in the doubles," Kleinecke said. "In fact, it was a little shaky there. But once we settled in, I thought we competed really hard and gave ourselves a chance to win."

Winning has become a see-saw situation for the Aggies this season, with their longest winning streak stuck at two consecutive wins. But Kleinecke said he hopes this last mini-winning streak will carry over with his team into their next few matches.

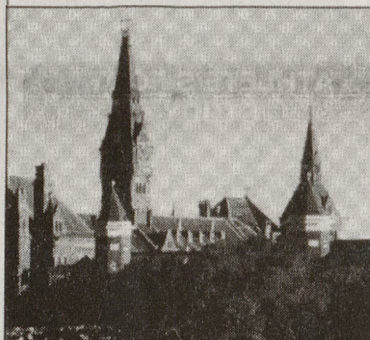

SALLIE TURNER/THE BATTALION

Texas A&M senior Kathryn Scott drives a backhand home against Alabama on Tuesday.

"You've just got to get that ranked win (against Miami last Saturday) and go play," Kleinecke said.

The Aggies will have to do more than just play if they expect to do well in their next contest. Pepperdine, the No. 4 team in the country, comes to Aggieland on Friday at 6 p.m. at the Varsity Tennis Center.
