

MCAT

There's a reason we're the #1 MCAT course.

Why do more students choose Kaplan MCAT than all other prep courses combined? Is it our expert teachers?...Convenient class schedules?...Comprehensive review materials and up-to-date practice MCATs?...Could it be our online MCAT topical tests available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week?

Answer: All of the above.

A&M has a history of struggling against the Longhorns in women's tennis. In fact, A&M's all-time match record against Texas is a paltry 1-27. A&M's lone win in the series came in 1986, the last time A&M won a conference crown.

All that does not seem to phase the Aggies this year, however, as they carry an enormous amount of confidence and a six-game winning streak of their own into tonight's match.

The match begins with singles competition at 6 p.m. and doubles play following immediately.

Aggies their third point with a 6-3, 6-2, victory on the No. 6 court.

With only two matches remaining in the regular season, Aramburo said the Aggies are focusing on entering the postseason on a high note.

"It's very important for us to have great rhythm and energy heading into the conference tournament," he said.

Sophomore Ryan Newport clinched the match for the Aggies at No. 4 with a 7-6 (5), 6-1, win over UC-Irvine's David Matthew.

Sophomores Keith From and Jarin

Skube added a fifth and sixth set to the Aggies with victories on the No. 5 courts.

Playing No. 2, 92nd-ranked senior Cody Hubbell fell to the Aggies, while she was 1-1.

The Aggies started by winning three doubles matches to cap off a 5-0 record and From defeated the 50th-ranked of Chung and Chris Hubbell and senior Gonzalo also were victorious, 8-1 over Irvine's Lucas and Borkman.

The Aggies resume Big 12 play Wednesday at 6 p.m. at the Varsity Center against Oklahoma State.
