Tenacious D renews source of High

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tenacious D fans will be hearing lead singer Jack Black sing "Let's Get It On" at the band's new album, Fidelity, but it was Black who chose the song. Black is known more for his heavy metal parodies than his sweet rendition of the standard that closes the new album. Black pushed for the song, a member of the band said. Black ended up using just the first line of the song, and thought I could sing it better than he. We were talking about me doing other Marvin Gaye songs. He n't think rock was hard. I decided to write a good one. After playing chops at the end of the album, Black told The Associated Press in a recent interview. Black plays a bombastic snob who works in a record

Singer Jennings undergoes surgery

PHOENIX (AP) — Country music star Waylon Jennings was recovering Tuesday from surgery to ease leg pain, a spokesperson said. Jennings, 62, underwent surgery Monday to ease the pain from peripheral vascular disease in both legs. He's expected to recover. Peripheral vascular disease is a condition in which the arteries that carry blood to the arms or legs become narrowed or clogged, slowing or stopping the flow of blood. "He came through it," said a spokesperson. Jennings' long list of hits includes "Good Hearted Woman" and "Mamas Don't Let Your Babies Grow up to Be Cowboys," a duet with Willie Nelson.

Actor Carey to give keynote speech

CLEVELAND (AP) — It's a college for Drew Carey. The TV star has agreed to deliver the keynote speech at Cleveland State University's commencement on May 7. This will not be the first that the crew-cut Carey, who he spoke to dental graduates at Case Western Reserve University. Carey, a Cleveland native, attended Kent State University but dropped out. Cleveland State spokesperson Joe Valencio said Carey's speech won't just be for laughs. "This isn't a frivolous event," Valencio said.

Iacocca to spend Earth Day on E-Bike

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lee Iacocca, the brains behind the Ford Mustang and the minivan, will spend Earth Day, which is this Saturday, on two wheels. Iacocca's EV Global Motors Co. styled an electric bicycle — the E-Bike — like a mountain bike. It can reach 20 mph and travel up to 20 miles on a single charge from a regular household outlet. Prices start at $995. "Not only am I going to be riding an electric bike everywhere, I'm encouraging my friends to do the same," Iacocca said. "Consumers are taking a great interest in clean energy and native-fuel vehicles." Iacocca said inquiries about the E-Bike have tripled since gas prices rose up to $2 a gallon over the past few months.
