STAFF AND WIRE

Texas A&M football's success story did not end with the 1999 season. After four Aggies were picked in the first five rounds of the NFL Draft over the weekend, six more signed free agent contracts by Wednesday afternoon.

Cornerback Jason Webster was the first to be claimed by the pros, going in the second round to the San Francisco 49ers. Chris Cole, Shane Lechler and Dante Hall would join Webster in the following rounds.

"I am happy that several of our players have gotten a chance to play in the NFL," said A&M football coach R.C. Slœcum. "This is a great opportunity for these young men and a credit to their hard work and dedication."

Cole signed in the third round to the Denver Broncos as the 70th pick. All-America punter Shane Lechler was claimed by the Oakland Raiders and running back Dante Hall went to the Kansas City Chiefs.

Six others Aggies would follow in free agency over the next three days.

Out of the secondary, cornerback Sedrick Curry was snatched by the Pittsburgh Steelers and defensive back Brandon Jennings went to the Raiders.

Receiver's Matt Bumgardner and Leroy Hodge signed with the New England Patriots and the Detroit Lions, respectively.

The offensive line rounded out A&M's free agents as Semisi Heimuli went to the New York Jets and Andy Vincent signed with the Lions.

Men's Tennis
host Cowboys
in showdown

With two matches to play in the regular season, The No. 9-ranked Texas A&M men's tennis team will look to remain unbeaten at home when they host Oklahoma State University in Big 12 Conference play on Wednesday at 6 p.m. at the Varsity Tennis Center.

The Aggies have won 10 straight matches overall and are 12-0 at home this season. They are 17-5 overall, 5-1 in the Big 12 Conference.

OSU will be the second of three opponents in this final week of the regular season for the Aggies. A&M beat UC-Irvine, 6-1, to open the week and they will host Kansas (8-9, 4-2 Big 12) to close out the regular season on Friday at noon in a double-header with the Aggie women and Jayhawks.

A&M is tied for second place in the Big 12 with OSU as Baylor leads the league with a 6-0 mark. With a win over the Cowboys, the Aggies are assured of finishing no worse than second.
