Three Tenors sell out Las Vegas venue

LAS VEGAS (AP) — In a venue associated more with boxing matches and rock concerts, tenors Luciano Pavarotti, Jose Carreras and Placido Domingo performed for a sellout crowd.

PAVAROTTI

The Three Tenors returned Saturday night for four encores before a crowd of 11,000 at Mandalay Bay Resort on the Las Vegas Strip.

They sang selections from "Le Cid" and "Tosca" and performed "Maria," "Tonight" and "Moon River" with the 84-piece Glendale Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Marco Armiliato.

The show will be the only West Coast concert this year for the Three Tenors. Tickets cost $95 to $900. Pavarotti christened the center last April, shortly after the hotel-casino opened.

Academy to honor singer Wynette

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tammy

Wynette will be the first posthumous recipient of the Pioneer Award from the Academy of Country Music.

Trisha Yearwood, The Judds, Patty Loveless, Martina McBride and Dolly Parton will participate in the tribute during the CBS broadcast May 3.

The Pioneer Award was created in 1968 to recognize outstanding and unprecedented achievement in country music. The recipient is chosen by the 3,000-member academy's board of directors.

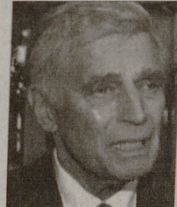

Wynette had 20 No. 1 hits, including "Stand By Your Man," and two Grammys in a career that spanned more than 30 years.

She died in 1998 at 55 after years of various health problems.

Hestons to take on play 'Love Letters'

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP) — Charlton Heston and his wife will perform "Love Letters" during a June trip to Idaho.

Heston and Lydia Clarke Heston will perform the two-person play on June 24 at Pocatello's Colonial Theater, the day after Heston takes his well-known conservative views before the Republican State Convention. Heston agreed to the appearance to fill the schedule of Robert Wagner and Jill Sawley canceled because of commitments.

The play covers a span of 60 years through the love letters.

Heston and his wife performed it last year for three weeks at London's market Theatre.

Comedian Chase speaks about Clinton

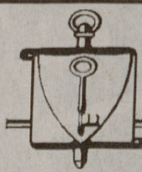

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — President Clinton have a golf instructor?

"Your president is a very golfer," Chevy Chase said after playing nine holes with Clinton on Sunday.

The former "Saturday Live" comic said he has learned more about golf from Clinton from anyone else.

"The whole time he's talking and telling everybody how swinging, and he's happy," Chase, who played the game with Clinton and his half brother Clinton.

Does Clinton ever cut out on the course? "No, he's not that," Chase said.
