Aggies face

BY JASON L
The Batt

April has not been a good month for the A&M baseball team. After losing to the No. 9 UConn Cougars, the Aggies fell to a record 12 straight games. Tuesday, after a 2-1 win, A&M rallied in the ninth innings to defeat the State University.

With that it was a tough loss. The game was gone just as quickly as it came. And it was just the beginning. Aggies prepare for what will be the pivotal game of the year against the No. 1 Texas Longhorns.

Sophomore outfielder is hoping to lead the
