Eminem
The Marshall Mathers LP
Interscope Records

The new bad boy of rap is not only a bigot and wife-beater, but also a master of rhymes and humor. Apparently Eminem did not get out all of his frustrations on his first studio album. The Marshall Mathers LP is riddled with hatred, Eminem makes outrageous remarks with the sole purpose to defame individuals, such as his wife Kim and pop sensation Christina Aguilera. The majority of the album does not showcase the friendly stylings of the first single, "The Real Slim Shady." Most have harder beats and are more aggressive lyrically. The track "Kim" is an ode to the emotional and alleged physical abuse he bestowed upon his wife and mother of his daughter Hailey. Mathers started his career in the rap underground of Detroit and caught the eye of hit-maker, rap mogul Dr. Dre. Under his wing, Eminem has the ability to win over audiences and sell the the most albums in a single week for a solo artist. The content on this LP should not be listened to by those who are easily offended. Much of the blatant hate remarks are said in jest or should not be taken seriously. Although he claims he could care less about a Grammy, rhymes do not tend to flow any better. P.S. Do not bring this CD home to mom. (Grade: B)

Kid Rock
American Badass
CD courtesy of Atlantic Records

If Kid Rock is an American badass then this country is in a sad state of cultural affairs. This new album collection of songs from Kid Rock previous albums remixed for a radio play, plus one extra new song. What does this say about Rock. It says he is trying to pawn old songs on a new audience who only recently jumped on the Kid Rock band
