

Lake Somerville drowning accident claims lives of 5 family members

SOMERVILLE, Texas (AP) — A Southeast Texas lake outing took a tragic turn when five members of a family drowned at Lake Somerville Sunday.

When three young cousins ran into difficulty staying above water, the father of two of the children dived in to try to save them, as did his brother-in-law, said Bursleson County Sheriff Gene Barber. All five died.

Elasar Manzanares, 37, jumped in after his daughter, Lupita Manzanares, 11; son, Jorge Manzanares, 8; and nephew, Kevin Manzanares, 9, got in trouble. Jose Rangel, 22, the children's uncle, also jumped into the water to help.

Rangel went under about 100 yards from shore. He was taken to St. Joseph Regional Health Center

"We would have liked to have found them (Sunday), but dark came on us."

— Gene Barber
Bursleson County sheriff

in Bryan, where he died in the intensive care unit.

Manzanares' body was found on Sunday within 50 feet of his daughter's body. Dive teams from the Texas Department of Public Safety and neighboring Washington County found the bodies of Jorge Manzanares and Kevin Manzanares Monday morning.

"We would have liked to have found them (Sunday), but dark came on us," Barber said.

A third unidentified man tried to help, but had trouble swimming and returned to shore, Barber said.

"He said the little girl was waving her hands in the water and hollering for someone to come help," Barber said. "The little boys were already in the water."

The family came to Welch Park at about 4 p.m. and the children began wading in the lake, the sheriff said.

Somerville Lake is relatively shallow, but drops off unexpectedly into deeper water, officials said. Water depths range from 10 to 30 feet.

Barber said the reservoir has been the site of numerous drownings in recent years.
