Top two AP spots remain unchanged

(AP) — UCLA's back, and so is Notre Dame. Back in the Top 25, that is.

With a resounding 35-24 victory over Alabama, the Bruins went from unranked to No. 16 in this week's Associated Press Top 25 college football poll.

The Fighting Irish, unranked in the preseason poll for the first time since 1986, opened their season with a 24-10 win over Texas A&M and moved in at No. 23.

UCLA was last ranked in the Top 25 in the fourth poll last season; Notre Dame last appeared in the 10th poll of '99.

Nebraska and Florida State remained 1-2, while Michigan moved up three places to No. 3 and Alabama tumbled 10 spots to No. 13.

The Cornhuskers, who opened with a 49-13 victory over San Jose State on Saturday, received 39 first-place votes and 1,736 points Sunday from the 71 sports writers and broadcasters on the AP panel.

Florida State, idle on Saturday, had 28 first-place votes and 1,725 points, while Michigan was a distant third with 1,513 points. The Wolverines opened with a 42-7 victory over Bowling Green.

Miami, a 61-14 winner over I-AA McNeese State last Thursday, moved up a spot to No. 4, followed by No. 5 Wisconsin, No. 6 Texas, No. 7 Kansas State, No. 8 Florida, No. 9 Georgia and No. 10 Virginia Tech.

The Badgers, who received one first-place vote, dropped a spot after a lackluster 19-7 win over Western Michigan last Thursday night. Texas, which opens its season Saturday against Louisiana-Lafayette, had two first-place votes and UCLA had one first-place vote.

USC was up a notch at No. 11, followed by No. 12 Tennessee, No. 13 Alabama, No. 14 Purdue, No. 15 Washington, No. 16 UCLA, No. 17 Clemson, No. 18 Ohio State, No. 19 Mississippi and No. 20 Oklahoma.

Illinois remained No. 21, followed by No. 22 TCU, No. 23 Notre Dame, No. 24 Michigan State and No. 25 Southern Mississippi, which remained in the rankings despite a 19-16 loss at Tennessee.

Colorado and Texas A&M dropped out of the poll.

In the USA Today/ESPN coaches poll, the top five are Nebraska, Florida State, Michigan, Miami and Florida.

Players of the week announced

DALLAS (AP) — Texas Tech receiver Carlos Francis, Kansas State defensive end Monty Beisel and teammate Aaron Lockett were named Monday the Big 12's players of the week.

Francis set a school freshman record with 234 yards on seven catches as Tech beat Utah State 38-16. He was 8 yards shy of breaking the Big 12 single-game receiving yardage record and 18 yards from the single-game school mark. He also returned two kickoffs 61 yards.

Beisel was credited with 13 tackles, including five unassisted, three tackles for losses of 11 yards, and two sacks for 9 yards in Kansas State's season-opening 27-7 victory over Iowa on Aug. 26.

Lockett earned special teams honors for his performance last Saturday in a 54-10 victory over Louisiana Tech. Filling in for David Allen, Lockett had 65 net yards on three punt returns, including a 69-yarder for a touchdown.

Injuries plague Cowboys opener

IRVING (AP) — Dallas receiver Joey Galloway is out for the year after tests Monday confirmed he tore a knee ligament in the season-opening 41-14 loss to Philadelphia.

The Cowboys also listed their top two quarterbacks, Troy Aikman and Randall Cunningham, as questionable for next week's game at Arizona.

Aikman received a concussion against Philadelphia and Cunningham sprained his right throwing thumb.

Dallas will put Galloway on injured reserve and activate rookie quarterback Clint Stoerner from the practice squad.

acquired in an offseason trade with Seattle, was carted off the field in the closing minutes of Sunday's game. He finished with four catches for 62 yards, including a 4-yard catch for the Cowboys' only touchdown.

"The good news is he's repaired and rehabed in ACL before," Cowboys owner Jerry Jones said Monday.

Aikman sustained the ninth concussion of his 12-year NFL career after being sacked for the fourth time in the first half of the opener.

"His test at the hospital would allow him to be considered day-by-day," Jones said.
