The heavens declare the reality of God

The sun and stars are slowly burning out. Like a giant battery, the whole universe is running down. It is abundantly clear that the cosmos cannot sustain itself forever. Therefore, it is most intelligent and reasonable for us to believe that the universe was created by the eternal being that is God.

Are you interested in getting to know God? He loves all persons. He loves you and me. Almost 2000 years ago, he sent his son Jesus Christ into the world to die on the cross for our wrongdoings and sins and return to life through the miracle of the resurrection.

God's plan for each of us is that we turn away from our sins and believe in Christ. When we do this, God forgives us and gives us fellowship and eternal life with himself. You can become a Christian right now wherever you are. Tell God that you are sorry for your sins and that you here and now accept Christ as your Savior and Lord.

As soon as you have received Christ, you may be sure that he has forgiven you of every sin and has given you eternal life. You may be sure that God will lead you by his spirit in the way that is good and right. Make friends with other Christians. Meet with them for worship, prayer, and Bible study. Make a habit of reading the Bible. Start with the gospel of John. And may God bless you!

Texas stunned by loss

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — DeRonnie Pitts punctuated an up-and-down, back-and-forth game with a flying leap of faith.

Pitts cartwheeled into the end zone after catching a 15-yard touchdown pass from backup quarterback Chris Lewis with 1:12 to play as Stanford beat No. 5 Texas 27-24 on Saturday night.

Stanford led 20-9 with 10 minutes left. Texas' Major Applewhite rallied the Longhorns with two touchdown drives. The Cardinal (2-1) then made a frantic four-play, 59-yard drive in just 43 seconds.

It ended when Pitts caught a short sideline pass, broke Joe Walker's tackle at the 10, leaped for the goal line, was flipped into the air by Roderick Babers and landed in the end zone.

"I knew I was flying over him as soon as I got off that one tackle," Pitts said. "Chris made a great throw, and we set up the play perfectly. (The leap) was pretty scary, but I saw (Virginia Tech QB) Michael Vick do it today, so I thought I'd give it a shot."

Texas (1-1) could not answer, with Brandon Healy dropping a fourth-down pass from Applewhite with 33 seconds to play. Stanford fans stood and cheered for several minutes after the victory, the school's first over a top-10 team since Sept. 18, 1993, when the Cardinal beat No. 7 Colorado.

"It's an absolutely fantastic feeling to beat a team of this caliber," said coach Tyrone Willingham, who called the victory one of the biggest of his tenure. "It shows the resilience of our young men to bounce back and not let the past affect them."

With former Stanford golfer Tiger Woods cheering on the sideline, Lewis led a dramatic comeback in place of starter Randy Fasani, who injured his left knee when he was sacked by Maurice Gordon just seven minutes into the game.

After the Texas offense was stymied all evening by an inspired Stanford defense, Applewhite connected with B.J. Johnson on a 71-yard touchdown strike with 9:29 to play. Applewhite then hit Victor Ike over the middle for a 38-yard scoring play with 5:44 left to give Texas a 24-20 lead.

"The game definitely had a sense of the bizarre," Applewhite said. "We didn't play well until the fourth quarter. We had some confidence and momentum in the fourth quarter, and when we got the big play, we really started feeding off that."

Most of the game was a defensive battle, with both teams combining for 23 frustrating punts. The Longhorns' frustration showed in a hat-throwing tantrum by Texas coach Mack Brown after a penalty in the third quarter.

Raiders beat Cajuns, move to 4-0

LUBBOCK (AP) — Texas Tech improved to 4-0 with a 26-0 victory over Louisiana-Lafayette, but quarterback Kliff Kingsbury said the Red Raiders can use next week off to let some bumps and bruises heal and to work on offensive consistency.

The Red Raiders managed just 14 yards of offense during the third quarter.

"It was just one of those things," Kingsbury said. "We just had a spell where it seemed like we let up a little. We didn't come out and play as well as we're capable."

Kingsbury's 2-yard pass to Tim Baker and field goals of 24 and 19 yards by Chris Burkholz gave the Red Raiders a 13-0 halftime lead over the Ragin' Cajuns (0-3). A 71-yard screen pass to Baker set up another touchdown.

"I let myself down and made some stupid mistakes," Cajun quarterback Jon Van Cleave said. "We moved the chains in the second half. We just have to finish drives."

Tech intercepted Van Cleave three times and Wes Welker scored on a 63-yard punt return late in the third.

In the fourth, Baker took a screen pass 71 yards from the Tech 25 to the Cajun 4, and running back Rich Williams scored from there.

"I wished I would have scored, but I was trying to be careful with the ball," Baker said. "I have confidence in Ricky that when we get that close, he'll get it in there."

Kingsbury completed 24 of 37 passes for 240 yards with two interceptions. Williams carried 15 times for 77 yards. Two weeks ago, Kingsbury threw for a school record 456 yards against Utah State.

"I know sometimes it seems like we're taking one step forward and one step back, but I thought we had a better tempo and we had a better attacking mentality," Kingsbury said. "I think we're improving."

Van Cleave completed 10 of 21 passes for 79 yards. John Bernard was the visitors' leading rusher, gaining 77 yards on 15 carries.

Tech's second field goal came after cornerback Derrick Briggs intercepted Van Cleave's deep pass at the Tech 36 with 49 seconds left in the second quarter.
