made up for the secondary's shortcomings while it found its feet. Glenn, along with Brian Gamble and Cornelius Anthony, kept the UTEP passing game from getting out of hand by putting pressure on quarterback Rocky Perez.

Gamble led the unit with 13 tackles, including a sack, an interception and a pair of pass deflections.

Glenn added 10 more stops with two sacks and two passes batted down. Anthony rounded it out with eight stops and a sack.

"We showed it tonight," Glenn said. "I believe we are (the best linebacker unit). We came together at halftime and said we were going to win this game no matter what."

"We had to step it up and we did that."

The young players in the defensive backfield found their feet in the second half, teaming up with the linebackers to allow only 50 passing yards and 37 on the ground in the final 30 minutes.

Walk-on safety Wes Bautovich continued to lead the defensive backs with eight stops while defensive end Ronald Flemons posted 12.

Behind the scenes, the game was won in the trenches. A&M's offensive line set up the Aggies' most balanced attack to date, protecting the quarterback and opening up the run.

"They've done great," Farris said. "People don't realize it, but I haven't hardly been hit at all this year."

"I got hit a couple times tonight, but that's part of football. They've done a great job. They won the game, if you ask me," he said.

Back-up quarterback Colby Freeman closed out the game with a 15-yard touchdown run in the final minute.

Jay Brooks blocks the UTEP punt. The block was recovered by the Aggies for a touchdown.

timeout of the match and regrouped to put the score at 14-12. Kansas scored once more, but A&M ended the second game on a block by junior setter Jenna Moskovik.

A&M jumped ahead early in game three by scoring 10 straight points, putting the score at 10-2. Kansas started to close in on the Aggies by moving the score to 11-9, but A&M scored four straight points and ended the game and the match on a Jayhawk hitting error.

"With each match, I'm more committed to certain things that this team can do better," Corbelli said. "I am determined to get them there. It's my job to push them even harder with every match."

Marshall led the Aggies with 17 kills and a .424 hitting percentage, while junior outside hitter Michelle Cole added 16 kills. Junior defensive specialist Beth Weynand recorded a career-high and match-high 13 digs to lead A&M's back court.

The Aggies will be in action again Wednesday when they travel to Norman to take on the University of Oklahoma at 7 p.m.

lo inside the 18-yard box. Tamporello beat the defender and shot the ball just inside the left post for her first career goal, bringing the score to a 2-1 Mean Green lead.

Tamporello said she was excited about scoring her first goal as an Aggie in the regular season and was glad she could help out her team.

"It felt great," Tamporello said. "I didn't do it for myself, it was all for the team. Coach told me to get out there and get the team going and that is what I did."

The goal seemed to raise A&M's confidence level.

"That's how it is in any game," Tamporello said. "You need one little thing to get it going. In this case, we just pass the ball like A&M does, we play like we know how to play—one good thing leads to another and it's all downhill from there."

The Aggies' second goal came in a frenzy of action. With 14:36 remaining in the game, senior midfielder Allison Peters passed the ball to freshman midfielder Kristen Strutz at the top right corner of the 18-yard box. Strutz crossed the ball to the far post, where Tamporello headed a ball that was deflected by the North Texas goal keeper off the crossbar. The ball returned to Peters who headed it over the keeper for the Aggies' second goal.

The Aggies then received a penalty kick courtesy of a Mean Green handball in the penalty box with 7:36 to play. A&M senior midfielder Heather Wiebe tied the game as her shot from the penalty spot slipped inside the left post.

A&M's slow start was due in part to North Texas' play. Guerrieri said North Texas took advantage of its opportunities and the Aggies did not.

"North Texas did a great job," Guerrieri said. "Every time they got a sniff at goal, somehow they found a way to [score]."

A&M managed to hold the ball on North Texas' side of the field for most of the game, but the Mean Green's offense proved to be difficult to contain—especially the play of Marilyn Marin.

Marin scored two of North Texas' goals and provided an assist for the other.

North Texas soccer coach John Hedlund said he was happy with his team's performance despite the loss. "I can't say enough about how hard our kids played and how proud I am of them," Hedlund said. "They just battled throughout the 90 minutes."

Guerrieri said the game was a good experience for the team.

"We hope it gives them confidence in what we're doing, and also a little bit of learning that you've got to go out and you've got to go 100 percent," Guerrieri said. "Positive reinforcement is much better than negative reinforcement."
