concern about the Senate approving a resolution they did not believe is representative of the student body.

"We are not acting just on our own best interests of KTFB; this resolution does not represent the student opinion," said Lucas Chetham, a member of KTFB and a sophomore civil engineering major. "Members of the KTFB organization were not asked about this; student senators should not make decisions for the student body. We at KTFB are doing this to give everyone the opportunity to be a part of bonfire."

In other business the Senate:
• Approved disbanding Old Main Society and The Winter Spirit of Aggieland society due to lack of membership, inter-

financial activity.
• Heard the introduction of a registration bill, which was considered in committee and passed on at the Sept. 27 meeting. The bill sets up voter registration drives to be held and directed by the Students in support of the off-campus bonfire listen to speakers at the Student Senate meeting Wednesday night in the Koldus Building.
