Do you feel out of control when you are eating?
Do you think you have problems with binge eating or bulimia?

A short-term treatment program is now being formed at the TAMU Psychology Clinic to help with these problems. This will be an affordable and scientifically supported treatment that will address: gaining control over binge eating/vomiting, reducing weight and shape concerns, building self-esteem, and developing healthy eating patterns.

For more information call Michelle at the Texas A&M Psychology Clinic - 845-8017
