Hurricane strikes Yucatan, Belize

CHETUMAL, Mexico (AP) — Coastal residents of Mexico's Yucatan peninsula and north-eastern Belize fled their homes Sunday as the dangerous core of Hurricane Keith came ashore, bringing strong wind and torrential rain.

With the storm packing 125-mph winds, scores of people in Chetumal, a bay-side city of 130,000, abandoned their homes. Many live in low-lying areas, in shacks made of wooden slats and cardboard.

Mexican authorities set up 15 shelters and evacuated 800 people from high-risk areas in the region, about 190 miles south of Cancun.

Many residents seemed to take the weather in stride; families waded through streets flooded with ankle-deep water. Others rode bikes through the pounding rain and old men drank coffee on a covered sidewalk.

Hurricane Keith was stationary Sunday afternoon, about 50 miles south-southeast of Chetumal, and about 40 miles northeast of Belize City, where power lines were reported down, said the National Hurricane Center in Miami.

The U.S. government issued a travel warning to Americans in Belize because of extensive flooding, the State Department said. Peace Corps volunteers and U.S. government employees in non-emergency jobs were moved out.

The Belize village of San Pedro was one of the hardest-hit areas, Red Cross officials said. Winds battering the village were clocked at 83 mph before the instrument measuring the wind broke. Gusts were reported up to 110 mph.

"We have reports that roofs are blowing off houses," said Judith Reid, of the Red Cross in Belize City. "The rain is coming on strong and the wind is picking up here, and we are still far south of where the action is."

Forecasters warned of flash floods and mud slides as heavy rain fell throughout Belize, Honduras, Guatemala and Nicaragua, although the slow-moving hurricane was expected to weaken as it moved inland.

There were no reports of deaths or injuries by midday in the state of Quintana Roo, where Chetumal is located, said Jose Irabien, an official from the governor's office.

"The storm is acting strange, usually they are a lot stronger than this when a storm of this magnitude is close, but this time we haven't had that," Irabien said. "We're working 24 hours to keep people informed and to help anyone who needs it."

Maria de la Cruz, from the nearby community of Izcalac, abandoned her shack Saturday with her husband, five children and four other relatives.

"They told us it's going to hit hard," said Cruz, one of 217 area residents sleeping at a school in Chetumal. "Thank God we have a place to go."

A hurricane warning remained in effect Sunday along the Yucatan peninsula's eastern coast from Cabo Catoche south to Monkey River, Belize. A hurricane watch was in effect along the Yucatan's north coast, west of Cabo Catoche to Progreso.

Unsportsman-like conduct

BRADY CREEL/THE BATTALION

Vandals spray-painted Texas Tech's logo on benches and columns at the Jack K. Williams Administration Building over the weekend. It is not known whether the graffiti was painted before or after Saturday's game, in which A&M defeated Tech, 33-15.

Chinese saints named

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John Paul II declared Sunday for 120 Chinese and foreign missionaries killed in the 19th-century — and ongoing struggle in China. Stung, he called the martyrs "evildoingners" and their canonization an open insult.

Naming of the church's first Chinese saints threatened to worsen already stiff relations with China, which at home is combatting a can-allied Roman Catholicism and other banned spiritual movements sees as challenges to its authority.

The date of the canonization was enraging to China — falling on China's National Day celebrating 51 years of communist rule. So their chosen subject: 87 Chinese and 33 foreigners, most killed in what China still views as the vicious 1900 Boxer Rebellion against foreign imperialism and religion.

John Paul, looking wan and tired on a rainy morning in St. Peter's Square, insisted that "the celebration is not the time to make judgments."

"The church only intends to recognize that those martyrs are an example of courage and coherence for all of us, and give honor to the Chinese people," the pope said. John Paul named three other saints as well, all nuns.

27 killed in riots

JERUSALEM (AP) — Palestinian gunmen, cheered by rock-throwing rioters, fired on Israeli troops from rooftops and abandoned buildings in clashes across the West Bank and Gaza Strip on Sunday. At least 27 Palestinians were killed when Israeli troops returned fire, for a total of 100 deaths in three days of bloodshed over a bitterly contested Jerusalem shrine.

An Israeli border policeman was critically wounded, trapped for hours in a tiny Israeli enclave in the West Bank town of Nablus, as Palestinian fire blocked rescue teams from reaching the area.

The latest fighting came as Israeli and Palestinian peace negotiators traded harsh accusations instead of ideas on how to solve their disputes.

In an ominous sign of escalation across the West Bank and Gaza Strip, Israeli troops fired anti-tank missiles, hurled grenades and shot from helicopter gunships. Several Israeli tanks tumbled toward the Palestinian towns of Nablus and Ramallah, but warning gestures, but did not cross lines of jurisdiction.
