

"He was the kind of kid who could do anything he wanted to do. If it was important to him, he'd set his mind to it."

— Jerry Ebanks
Father

"Jeremy did so much with his short time on this Earth. He was so creative, he did everything from metal shop to poetry. I called him a Renaissance man."

— Judi Frampton
Mother

JEREMY FRAMPTON

Class of 1999 — Psychology
Turlock, California
Former Member of Corps of Cadets

"It seems like only yesterday Jamie and I were in the gym tumbling together. She was always cheering for me."

— Kristen Hand
Sister

JAMIE HAND

Class of 2003 — Environmental Design
Henderson, Texas
FHK Complex

"When I look back at Tim and all the things he had done, and how he touched people ... he's my hero."

— Janice Kerlee
Mother

TIM KERLEE JR.

Class of 2003 — Mechanical Engineering
Bartlett, Tennessee
Corps of Cadets Squadron 16

"I'm able to talk to Jerry; I pray through Jerry. He's so special; I think he has a special connection."

— Michael Self
Father

JERRY SELF

Class of 2001 — Engineering Technology
Arlington, Texas
Corps of Cadets Squadron 17

"Scott should be remembered as an exuberant Christian young man who put himself into everything he did, whether it was the Corps of Cadets or Bonfire."

— Richard West
Father

NATHAN SCOTT WEST

Class of 2002 — Ocean Engineering
Bellaire, Texas
Corps of Cadets Company C-2

"He was the smartest guy I have ever known in my entire life. He could've easily done anything he wanted to."

— Ruth Houston
High school classmate

CHAD POWELL

Class of 2003 — Computer Engineering
Houston, Texas
FHK Complex

Bonfire 1999