CODY WAGES/THE BATTALION

Texas A&M senior forward Carlton Brown soars for a slam dunk after stealing the ball from Morris Brown's Kavon Westbury. The dunk was part of a second-half 10-point run by the Aggies, enroute to a 79-46 win at Reed Arena. The win was coach Melvin Watkins' highest point margin ever as A&M's men's basketball coach. The Aggies return to Reed on Tuesday to face Lamar.

improved as well, sending in 21-32 free throws after a shaky start.

Watkins was pleased with the re- turn of 6-foot-11-inch forward Tomas Ressa from a staph infection he developed after an appendectomy this summer.

Ressa contributed only three points, but Watkins said it was a key performance for Ressa to build on.

"I'm glad to have Tomas back; he's the spirit of our team," Watkins said. "He didn't play a lot of minutes, but to have him back out there helps us as well. He's an integral part of what we're doing this year, we need him in there, so as soon as we can get some stamina in him, he's going to get a lot more minutes."

Leatherman attributed the victory to a change in intensity in the team over the last two days.

"We knew what we had to do," Leatherman said. "We're tired of losing. We knew that we could play."

We knew that we could play with more intensity. We just had to come back and play hard tonight.

"Now it's just a matter of doing it every night."

A strong showing off the bench contributed 32 points.

A&M's largest lead of the night was shown in the final tally with 33 points, which is Watkins' largest margin of victory in his A&M coaching career.

The Aggies will travel to Richmond, Va., to take on Virginia Commonwealth Saturday and will return home for a game with Lamar Tuesday at 7 p.m.

"We knew what we had to do. We knew we could play. ... Now it's just a matter of doing it every night."

HEY AGGS!

Guidelines for Low-Risk Alcohol Use.

0
ZERO DRINKS = LOWEST RISK

WOMEN: No more than one standard drink a day.

MEN: No more than two standard drinks a day.

- A standard drink is:
- 12 ounces of regular beer (5% alcohol)
 - 1.5 ounces of 80-proof distilled spirits (40% alcohol)
 - 5 ounces of wine (12% alcohol)

It's always okay not to drink.

Things to do before finals:

STUDY, STUDY, STUDY

Eat healthy foods, avoiding too much sugar and caffeine (including over the counter stimulants-vivarin, no-doze)

Get plenty of rest!!!

Eliminate alcohol and other mood altering drugs-they upset normal sleep, lower concentration, and decrease memory ability
