

• Appeals court reverses dismissal ruling on A&M regent's misconduct conviction

Page 5A

• North Carolina gives Aggies chance for upset

A&M takes on No. 16 Tarheels for first time since 1980 NCAA tourney win

Page 1B

• Cadets caught with 30-foot tree, others admit to decoration theft

Page 5A

THE BATTALION

FRIDAY

December 8, 2000
Volume 107 - Issue 72
Section A - 8 pages
Section B - 6 pages

107 YEARS AT TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Fall 2000 Photo Highlights

As Y2K draws to a close, The Battalion chose some of the best, gripping photographs that represented a semester that meant so much to students and kept Texas A&M in the spotlight.

Photos in clockwise order from the top: Students hold candles in memory of the 12 fallen Aggies at the remembrance ceremony held at 2:42 a.m. on Nov. 18. A&M football players take down a Kansas State Wildcat in one of the fall's biggest upsets. Students in support of the renegade bonfire stand out in the rain, collecting donations for their cause. Rob Thomas, lead singer of Matchbox Twenty, performs to a Reed Arena crowd. A Cessna plane crashed near Millican, killing the two on board. A member of the Corps of Cadets receives the trademark Corps cut. Two George W. Bush supporters show their enthusiasm for the presidential candidate in Austin on election night.

