Israelis kill Palestinian officer

GAZA CITY, Gaza Strip (AP) — Israeli helicopters targeted a member of an elite unit in Yasser Arafat's police force and killed him with a missile as he drove on a busy street Tuesday, marking a return to Israel's policy of slaying suspected Palestinian militants.

A 13-year-old Palestinian boy was shot and killed in central Gaza and 60 other people reportedly were wounded by gunfire in the latest escalation of Mideast violence. The Israeli military said its soldiers did not shoot the boy.

On the political front, Israel's Prime Minister-elect Ariel Sharon and his defeated predecessor, Ehud Barak, moved closer to forming a coalition government that would seek only a partial peace deal with the Palestinians, a Sharon spokesman said.

Sharon, who must form a government with majority support in the 120-member parliament before assuming power, can expect to face a Palestinian population angered by the renewed violence and the diminished prospects for a comprehensive peace agreement.

Israel, which has killed several suspected Palestinian militants in recent months, sent a pair of helicopter gunships to strike at Massoud Ayyad, 54, as he drove on the outskirts of the Jebaliya refugee camp, just outside Gaza City.

Ayyad, an officer in the elite Force 17 unit, was killed as a missile turned the car into a smoldering, twisted pile of metal. The blasts from the missile shattered windows in buildings and down the street, including a mosque, witnesses said.

A senior Israeli military official said the killing foiled an operation that was about to be carried out by an officer, insisting on anonymity, as it involved a kidnapping, but would give no further details.

Barak sent his "heartfelt condolences" to the army for the killing of Ayyad, who was accused of attacking Netzarim, a Jewish settlement in central Gaza, with mortar fire.

But Palestinian Justice Minister Freih Abu Medeen said Israel is guilty of war crimes. He also disputed Israel's claim that Ayyad had ties to Hezbollah, the Lebanese guerrilla group. The killing of Ayyad marked the first time since December that Israel targeted a suspected Palestinian militant.

Barak said Tuesday that the killing would continue. "It is a clear message to anyone who is planning to attack Israelis that they will be able to do so with impunity," Barak said.
