

Graduation party turns deadly, one teen killed

DALLAS (AP) — One teenager was shot to death and another critically wounded when a graduation party turned deadly over the weekend.

Neighbors had called police to complain that dozens of teens had gotten out of control before shots rang out at the Southeast Dallas home early Sunday.

Renato Marquez, 16, died at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas after friends drove him to the hospital, police said. Cristian Estevane, 15, was shot in the head and taken to Baylor

Medical Center, where he remained in the intensive care unit Monday, police said.

Witnesses said almost 200 people attended the party, while police estimated the crowd at closer to 100. Detectives interviewed witnesses Sunday and tried to piece together what happened at the Pleasant Grove party, said Sgt. Larry Lewis, a homicide unit supervisor.

Sherri Schawo, a neighbor, and her boyfriend Karl Harrison said they called police because cars blocked a driveway. Noise from the party could be heard down the block and many partygoers who appeared underage were drinking beer, they said.

Harrison, who placed the call from Schawo's house at 10:34 p.m. Saturday, said a dispatcher told him officers would "take care of it." But officers did not arrive until after a second car came in at 12:41 a.m. Police officers were about the shootings.

"The police didn't do their jobs. The parents didn't do their jobs. It's irresponsible on all parts," Schawo said.
