MTV to throw 20th anniversary party

NEW YORK (AP) — Can you name all five of the original MTV VJs? Well, if not, they are getting together to celebrate the cable channel's 20th anniversary, so you can refresh your memory then.

Martha Quinn, J.J. Jackson, Alan Hunter, Nina Blackwood, and Mark Goodman will take part in the Aug. 1 party at New York's Hammerstein Ballroom.

Carson Daly of MTV's "Total Request Live" will be the host of the event, which will be broadcast live from 8 to 11 p.m. EDT. It will feature artist performances, interviews — and the triumphant return of Beavis and Butt-head.

"We're stuffing 20 years of MTV in one room for one night with all the music, irreverence and energy that we're known for," said MTV president Van Toffler. "This should be a memorable night — it will certainly make compelling television."

Wahlberg to star in remake of Charade

NEW YORK (AP) — Mark Wahlberg made a name for himself wearing Calvin Klein's underwear — but can he fill Cary Grant's shoes?

Wahlberg recently time in Paris shooting a remake of Charade, the 1963 thriller which starred and Audrey Hepburn.

Jonathan Demme will direct the new film, titled The About Charlie, which is due next year. Wahlberg plays Grant role and Thandie Newton plays Hepburn's role.

"I probably won't see what it means until it's done and I get bashed for doing a great part," the 30-year-old former underwear model and rapper told Variety magazine in its August issue. "But I'm really not scared of taking risks."

"I don't even really think about it," Gelé said. "It's basically been me sitting in front of the computer and goofing off."

But do not let her modesty fool you. Of her four or five novels in progress, she is marketing one to publishers, and does freelance illustrations for other writers.

"You really have to plan the artwork. On serious pieces or commissions, I'll actually sit down and think about it."

Frustrations rarely work their way into her work, as she overcomes setbacks by sheer determination and sound logic.

"I'll just keep working till I fall down or something," Gelé said. "If it's not working, it's backing itself into a corner, I'll just abort and maybe go back to it later."

Her creative expressions make for personal counsel and private organization of thoughts and feelings.

"It's a release of some sort; it's my way of writing a journal. About a fourth to a third of people know."

wonderful job of making flying buses and exploding buildings look dangerously real. The best part about the special effects was the Matrix-like slow motion scenes where thousands of ball bearings fly through the air in every direction.

One word of caution, if viewers go to see this movie just to see Berry's twins, there might be some disappointment. You can expect to see Berry's berries only one time.

No complaints here. Perhaps the $500,000 she got for posing herself was not enough, or maybe she was waiting, like every female in the theater, for a Hugh Jackman butt shot. (Grade A-)
