ROTC

AFROTC.COM

You pick up a lot of important survival tools in ROTC.

Starting with a tuition check.

First things first. Pay the bills, get through college, then get on with the rest of your life. Fortunately, joining Air Force ROTC can help you do all this and more. You could earn up to 100 percent of your tuition, fees and book costs — plus up to $400 of additional spending money every month. Not to mention gaining skills you'll use your entire career — like leadership, team-building and physical fitness. To find out how, visit AFROTC.COM or call 1-800-522-0033, ext. 2091.

CLARIFICATION

Concerning last week's articles about the Memorial Student Center and its removal of Council President Josh Rowan: the $40-per-student University Center Fee provides funding for the operation and upkeep of University Center facilities and the MSC Student Programs Office, among other offices. Monies provided to and used by the MSC Council are from the Student Services Fee.

media concepts and principles," said Dr. Leroy Dorsey, interim director of the Department of Journalism.

The degree offers the undergraduate specialties to prepare students for careers in various aspects of the telecommunication information industries. Students will study organizational management and technology issues, social and information policy, and communication media concepts and principles.

Both programs respond rapidly to expanding opportunities in marketplace and hope to prepare students for leadership positions rapidly developing and important new industries, Lieuwen said.

"My expectations are for students to take their work seriously and earn a useful degree and take that degree and get a job as teachers, performers, or even musical scholars," Lieuwen said.
