NEWS IN BRIEF

Texas scales back marketing to international tourists, visitors

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Tourism officials are hoping Texas and residents of neighboring states will prop up Texas' fourth-largest industry. State officials rolled out a new marketing campaign this week amid signs that they will scale back efforts to attract international visitors due to an economic slowdown in many parts of the world and, since Sept. 11, a fear of flying.

Two die when plane crashes in Johnson County

ALVARADO, Texas (AP) — Six people aboard a twin-engine Beechcraft plane died Thursday afternoon in a crash in Johnson County, authorities said.

The plane went into a tailspin and crashed about 1 p.m. about four miles east of Interstate 37 near the town of Alvarado, said Lorraine Ronquillo, a spokeswoman for the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The wreckage was in a field off County Road 206, according to the Department of Public Safety.

PARTY

the Aggie Wranglers dance team and the salsa group Grupo KaChe.

Freudian Slip had a crowd laughing with its unique brand of improvisational comedy.

When the performances were done, the crowd made way to the YMCA building for an 'Ol' Army Midnight Practice.

died in 1999."

In the contest for Class of 2005 vice president, Tommy Slocum Jr. won in a landslide, receiving 618 votes, or 82 percent, against Precious Atlas who received 134 votes, or 18 percent. Slocum attributed his success to his personality.

"In my campaign I stressed being well presentable and I like to think I go out and give a good impression," Slocum said. "I don't like to be fake."

Atlas won a Senate seat in the first round of elections and will serve in that body.

"Right now I'm still in the learning process," she said. "Last night was our first meeting. After about two or three sessions I'll know a lot more about the senate and how to get my ideas through."

Other run-off victors were Jared Grisham for secretary with 67 percent, Christopher White for social secretary with 75 percent and Courtney Fairchild for historian with 64 percent.

"To never have a student body position and to come up to A&M and to have a completely new start definitely puts a light on my day," White said.

The remaining class council position, treasurer, was the only position that did not require a runoff, with Timothy Soeken receiving a majority in the first round.

fun and a good community service opportunity," said Ben Arcuni of Company C-2. Arcuni said Run to the Chicken is one of the better fun-runs because there are so many participants.

The 5K run will begin

Saturday at 8 a.m., behind the Dixie Chicken.

"We chose the Dixie Chicken because it is a well established business and helps promote our event," said Jessica Newhouse, member of Delta Zeta and a run organizer.

The second half of the proceeds will go to the Delta Zeta Foundation and the Houston

Ear Research Foundation.

Entrants can register at the Commons, E. L. Wehner Building or the Memorial Student Center today or at the Dixie Chicken Saturday morning, Newhouse said.

"There will be registration going on up until the race," Newhouse said. "The cost is $15 after Thursday."
