goal and forward Kori Saunders was there to put it back in for the score.

After scoring their first goal, the Huskers went on the attack adding two more goals in the next sixteen minutes.

Saunders put Nebraska up 2-1 just under six minutes later by heading in a cross from midfielder Meghan Anderson.

Midfielder Shannon Tanaka added another goal for the Cornhuskers to put them up by two with just under 27 minutes to play.

A&M used a corner kick of its own to pull back within one goal with nineteen minutes left in the game as Defender Jessica Martin headed in the corner kick from defender Shannon Labhart.

However, with 12 minutes left, Nebraska was able to put the game away off another corner kick. The kick was again knocked down by goalkeeper Esther Thompson but bounced back into the net off an Aggie player for the Nebraska goal.

A&M drops to 6-3-1 overall and 3-1-1 in the Big 12. Nebraska improves to 9-2 and 4-1. Nebraska's Big 12 loss came to Texas Friday night in Austin, making the Longhorns the only team undefeated in Big 12 play.

Friday night, the Aggies beat Iowa State 3-0, bringing their all-time record to 6-0-1 against the Cyclones.

Defender Adrienne Dilliard and midfielder Amanda Burke both scored their first goals of the season against the Cyclones.

Thrasher scored the final goal against Iowa State and now has six goals on the season.

The Aggies go on the road next weekend to take on Kansas and Missouri.
