FINDING THE TERRORIST ATTACKS DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE?

Who isn't? Feeling more uneasy than usual as you try to get back to your normal routine? Most of us are. Know someone who was deeply affected by the attacks? Many of us do. Experiencing past losses and anxieties again? Very common result of traumatic experiences, like the terrorist attacks.

What can you do? One of the most powerful things you can do is to talk about your feelings. Talking in a supportive environment has healing qualities.

The Student Counseling Service is offering a group for students who would like a supportive environment to talk about the way the terrorist attacks and its repercussions have affected their lives. Exploring Emotional Safety will be offered on Mondays from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. and will be facilitated by Drs. Robert Carter and Nancy Stebbins. If you would like to participate in this group, call the SCS at 845-4427 or just show up on Monday, October 22nd at 1:30.

The SCS is located in Henderson Hall behind the All Faiths Chapel on campus.
