NEWS IN BRIEF

Inmate shoots sheriff's deputy

ORANGE (AP) — An inmate wrestled a gun from an Orange County sheriff's deputy and used it to shoot another deputy in the leg as he was being escorted from a court hearing Wednesday, authorities said.

Keith Wayne Gonzales, 41, held Deputy Carla Spell at gunpoint after shooting Deputy Faye Kirk in the leg in a second floor hallway at the Orange County Courthouse. Kirk was escorting another inmate down the hallway when she heard the struggle between Gonzales and Spell.

"Kirk pulled her weapon and ordered Gonzales to drop his gun," the Orange County Sheriff's Department said in a statement.

The deputy's leg was then grazed by a bullet. She took cover and called for backup as Gonzales took Spell and another inmate hostage in a nearby courtroom.
