consecutive point.

On the inbound, Bean stole a pass and found his path to the basket clear and completed his streak with a two-handed dunk.

Bean finished the night with 20 points and was joined by King, who posted 17 points.

The Aggies continued to dominate as the game came to a close, increasing their lead to 27 points and allowing the A&M bench some playing time.

With just 36 seconds remaining, freshman forward Jared Hall, whose name the Reed Arena crowd had been chanting for almost two minutes, hit a lay-up to tally his only points of the night in two minutes of play.

For the second time in three games this season, 12 different players scored for the Aggies. Prior to the 2001-2002 season, 12 A&M players had not scored in a single game since the 1989-1990 season.

"It is good having depth to challenge," Watkins said. "They do not like to sit the bench. They like to play and get minutes."

The Aggies (3-0) will continue their five-game home stand Friday against Long Beach State. Tip off is set for 8 p.m.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Rangers sign pitcher Van Poppel

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Right-hander Todd Van Poppel became the first of the 155 free agents to sign, agreeing Monday to a $7.5 million, three-year contract with the Texas Rangers.

Van Poppel, 29, was briefly with the Rangers during the 1998 season. He was 4-1 with a career-best 2.52 ERA in 59 appearances for the Cubs this year after going with a 3.75 ERA in 2000, a 30-43 career record and 5.50 ERA.

The Rangers had the pitching staff for the season in a row, with a major high 5.71 ERA. Texas has more runs (968) and hits than any other team.
