Enron reduced to junk status, buyout canceled by Dynergy

HOUSTON (AP) — Enron Corp. teetered toward bankruptcy Wednesday after its smaller rival, Dynergy Inc., called off its planned $8.4 billion acquisition of the energy giant.

Dynergy officials announced their decision shortly after two agencies downgraded Enron's credit rating to junk status — triggering immediate payment of billions of dollars in debt that the once-mighty energy trader probably can't pay.

The dire situation left Enron facing almost certain bankruptcy, analysts said. "It's the end of Enron, no question about it," said Gordon Howard, an "analyst at Credit Lyonnais Securities in New York. "I don't know who else could step in."

Enron is the country's top buyer and seller of natural gas, and the No. 1 wholesale power marketer. The company operates a 25,000-mile gas pipeline system, and markets and trades metals, paper, coal, chemicals, and fiber-optic bandwidth.

In a series of explosive disclosures last month, Enron revealed that partnerships run by its executives had allowed the company to keep about half a billion in debt off its books and allowed the executives to profit from the arrangements. Enron's dealings with those partnerships are now the subject of a Securities and Exchange Commission investigation.

The company ousted its top financial officer, and several weeks ago restated its earnings back to 1997 — eliminating more than $580 million in reported income.

In a statement, Dynergy said some aspects of the acquisition agreement had not been met, triggering its decision to end the deal.

"While it is regrettable to see a leading industry player in difficulties, this does not reflect a failure of the energy merchant business, said Dynergy chairman and chief executive Chuck Watson.

Two major credit rating agencies downgraded the Enron to junk status earlier in the day.

In separate statements, Standard & Poor's and Moody's Investors Service both had cited a loss of confidence that the deal will be consummated. They said Dynergy's willingness to go through with the buyout had been compromised by continued erosion in investor confidence and Enron's core energy trading business.
