BEHIND CLOSED EYES

HUMAN RIGHTS WATCH INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

What happens when a child soldier is both a criminal and a victim of his country's war in Liberia? How does a 7-year-old from Kosovo, adjust to her life in a Macedonian refugee camp, in a temporary shelter in the Netherlands and then back in her war torn country in less than two years? A Rwandan girl becomes a mother before her eighteenth birthday. How does she learn to love her child and herself despite the violence that brought about the child's birth? How does a young Cambodian learn to live without a leg lost in the war? Explore how four children of war learn to build a future, despite their past.
