Ags take on Long Beach

By BRIAN RUFF
THE BATTALION

The Texas A&M men's basketball team looks to continue its winning ways Friday night, when the Aggies (3-0) take on the Long Beach State 49ers at Reed Arena.

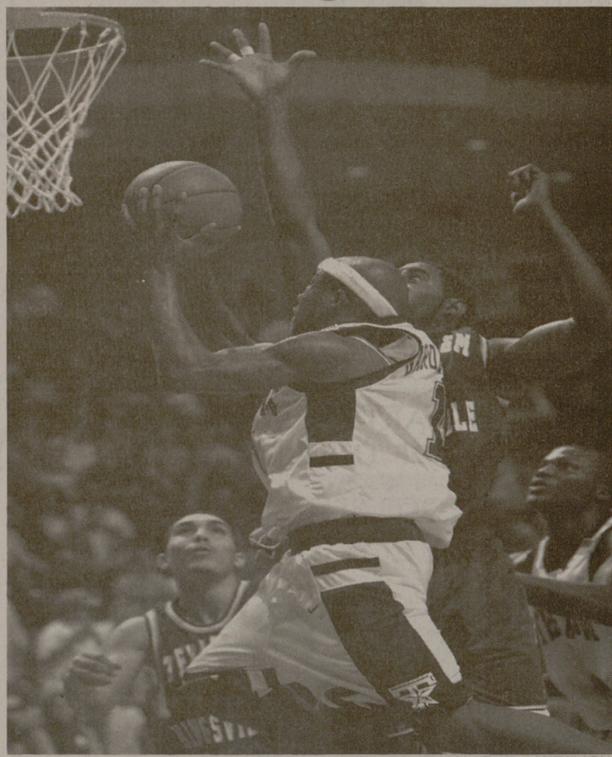

A&M comes into the game on the heels of a 91-70 win over Texas A&M-Kingsville Monday night. The Aggies struggled in the first half against the Javelinas, but dominated the second half of play, scoring 60 points to tally their third win of the young season. Junior forward Keith Bean scored 14 points in a four minute span to lead the Aggies over the Javelinas. Bean finished the game with 20 points.

"I am pleased with the effort that we have gotten thus far," said A&M men's basketball head coach Melvin Watkins. "We still have a lot of work to do and our challenges are going to get a lot greater."

The 49ers (3-2) are coming off a 81-46 win over Cal State-Monterey Bay in Long Beach on Monday. Long Beach is led by senior center Rudy Williams, who leads the team, averaging 14.4 points per game.

The Aggies suffered a 83-76 loss to the 49ers in Long Beach last season. A&M blew a 16-point lead in the second half to give Long Beach State the victory in the two teams' first meeting.

Junior guard Bernard King leads the Aggies in the 2001-2002 season, averaging 21 points per game and also is among the league leaders in assists, averaging 5.7 per game. King needs to hit just two more 3-pointers to become A&M's career leader in three-point field goals despite playing in just 62 games.

GUY ROGERS • THE BATTALION

Sophomore guard Michael Gardener and the Aggies will host Long Beach State at 8 p.m. tonight at Reed Arena

"He (King) is now able to take better shots," Watkins said. "Having the depth, that has allowed him not to force it as much. If he can continue to take better shots, he is definitely capable of putting the ball into the basket."

The matchup against Long Beach State is the second of a five-game homestand for the Aggies.

"We are still in our infant stages of trying to develop a chemistry and develop a lot of confidence every time we step on the floor," Watkins said. "When you have these home games, you need to protect the home court. It is going to be very important to get some wins in these games here."

Tipoff against the 49ers is set for 8 p.m.
