NEWS IN BRIEF

Philadelphia man fatally shoots four relatives, kills self

ARDMORE, Pa. (AP) — A man fatally shot four relatives Tuesday before killing himself at a home in this Philadelphia suburb, police said.

The man, identified as Michael Burgess, used a handgun to shoot and kill his wife, her parents, his stepdaughter and himself, said Lower Merion Township Police Superintendent Joseph Daly.

Daly said a female called police from the home asking for help.

Police found the gunman's wounded father-in-law in the back yard. The father-in-law later died, Daly said. Police found three bodies on the first floor and the girl on the second floor.

Elementary school organizes world's largest group hug

MILAN, Mich. (AP) — An elementary school's group hug has been certified as the world's largest by Guinness World Records.

Paddock Elementary School organized the hug on the last day of classes in June at behind the school. Over 1,478 huggers stood hand-shoulder for 10 seconds to accomplish the feat, shattering the previous record of 888.

Joanne Lund, a secretary at Paddock, told The Michigan Evening News for a Monday that she received confirmation letter Guinness last month.

School officials mailed British organization photo recordings and signatures everyone involved in the to get the record confirmed. "Once the idea got things came easily," Lund said. "Everyone was excited about
