Ags open Big 12 play strong

A&M defeats Missouri, ISU

By Dallas Shipp THE BATTALION

The No. 18 Texas A&M women's tennis team opened Big 12 play this weekend with victories over Missouri and Iowa State.

The Aggies jumped on Missouri early Friday, taking a 1-0 lead after sweeping the doubles matches and winning the first three singles matches to secure the victory. A&M went on to win the match, 6-1.

The No. 22 team of Jessica Roland and Ashley Hedberg put away Missouri's No. 20 Urska Juric and Katerina Sevcikova 8-3 in a good matchup at No. 1 doubles match.

"We did a good job of coming out and taking control," said A&M head coach Bobby Kleinecke. "[No. 1 doubles] was a great win for us."

The lone bright spot for Missouri in singles came at No. 5, where Kristina Olshanskaya defeated sophomore Roberta Spencer in a back-and-forth matchup, 7-5, 3-6, 7-5.

"A&M is deeper," said Missouri head coach Blake Starkey. "They come at you in waves, and there is nothing you can do about it."

The Aggies continued their strong weekend by pounding Iowa State in a 7-0 route on Sunday afternoon.

After winning the doubles point with another sweep, the Aggies began the day with four singles matches that all ended in wins.

However, the stories of the day came at the No. 1 and No. 2 singles courts, as No. 88 Roland and senior Majorie Terburgh rallied after losing their first set to win in a third set tiebreaker.

With the score 9-4 in the ten point tiebreaker to decide the match, Roland hit the ground in pain after rolling over on her ankle. "I've never had that much pain before," Roland said. "I've never sprained my ankle that bad. I didn't know if I was going to be able to get up and walk."

After receiving treatment from the trainers, Roland returned to the court and returned a blistering winner down the line to win the match, 3-6, 6-1, (10-4).

"After losing first sets and having guts to stick it out and come up with on-set wins and winning the third set tiebreaker, Jessica (Roland) and Majorie (Terburgh) did a great job of stepping when they needed to," Kleinecke said. The Aggies next match comes at No. 43 Arizona on Friday at 6 p.m. at the Varsity Tennis Center.

No. 14 A&M edges past Florida

By Kevin Espenlaub THE BATTALION

Sophomore Khaled El Dorry's sixth-straight singles victory helped the No. 14 Texas A&M men's tennis team to a victory over the No. 28 University of Florida Gators on Friday at the Varsity Tennis Center.

Leading 3-2 with two matches still underway, El Dorry shook off a second set defeat to rally past Florida's Ross Greenstein on court six, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2, to clinch the victory for the Aggies. Minutes later, freshman Lester Cook fell in three sets to Florida's No. 47 Eleazar Magellan on No. 1, bringing the final score to 4-3.

"Coach told me that I might be the last guy standing for us," El Senior Keith From returns a shot against Florida on Friday night at the Varsity Tennis Center. No. 14 A&M won, 4-3.

Dorry said. "He said to get on him early in the third set and let him. I tried to play with a lot of energy, and it worked out pretty well."

The Aggies (6-2) rebounded from Wednesday's doubles loss at the hands of Rice University by gaining victories on two doubles courts Friday, including upsets over two national doubles teams.

Cook and junior Ryan Newport blanked the No. 26 duo of McDonald and Hamid Mirzadeh at No. 1, 8-0, and the No. 18 duo of Magellan and Olivier Levant, 8-3.

The final doubles match saw senior Keith From and freshman Ante Matijevic defeat Matt Behrmann and Troy Hahn in a tiebreaker.

"I'm pleased with the effort," said A&M coach Tim Cass. "I was really pleased with the doubles to start the match especially after losing that point to Rice the other day. The couple of weeks have been really challenging for us with a lot of matches with very little rest between them, so I was glad that we were able to rebound from that match and come out strong today."

The Aggies won two quick points in singles to gain a 3-2 lead when Matijevic defeated Hahn, 7-5, 6-1 on No. 4. Newport followed by defeating Mirzadeh on No. 1, 6-4, 6-4.

However, Florida (4-1) came back with a flurry as From Skube lost before El Dorry clinched the game and helped salvage the ranking of the Aggies who had suffered losses in their last three matches.

"Florida is a really good team," Cass said. "But I still need to get everybody on the same page here. I'd like Keith (From) get back on track here soon, and Lester (Cook) had some tough matches, so hopefully he can figure out how to adjust from being a senior in high school to playing on court at a college level. I think he is getting there, and all in all, we're learning things as a team and, for this part of the season, our schedule so far, I'm pleased with what we take out of this match."
