shortstop Matt Alexander. Pinch hitter Tim Foley then reached on a single to put runners at first and second with two outs.

Consecutive RBI singles by Osmar Castillo, Ryan Baldwin and Pat Maloney cut the lead to 6-5. Maloney and Castillo were thorns in the Aggies' side all weekend, as the duo combined to go 15-for-29 over the series.

A&M reliever Logan Kensing put out the fire, striking out cleanup hitter Ty Soto with runners on first and second to end the game.

The Aggies got their offense clicking in the bottom of the fourth with three runs thanks to Meyer and Stephenson.

The pair hit back-to-back home runs, with Stephenson's going over the Green Monster in center field. David Evans added an RBI single later in the inning to give A&M a 3-0 lead.

Kansas State missed a golden opportunity to get in the game in the top of the sixth.

Down 3-0, the Wildcats loaded the bases with no outs on singles by Sorensen and Brandon Taylor and a walk to Castillo.

Matt Farnum relieved A&M starter Ryan Warpinski and dashed the Wildcats' hopes in the inning.

Farnum got Maloney to hit into a double play and struck out Soto to get the Aggies out of the inning unscathed.

"We scratched and we clawed but A&M has a good ball club," said Kansas State head coach Mike Clark. "We could have had something positive happen to us in the sixth inning with the bases loaded and nobody out. It didn't happen and we came up a run short."

Warpinski (2-2) earned the victory for the Aggies throwing five innings of shutout baseball, allowing five hits and striking out seven.

Loss

scored the next two games, but Cook finished him off, 6-2.

"I wanted to give the team the best chance I could," Cook said. "I could see that most of the team had fallen down early in the first sets and then I think we were able to fire back. It all comes down to a few points here and there and we didn't get them today."

Cook was referring to the three match points he and doubles teammate Ryan Newport failed to convert before falling on court No. 1 and giving the Longhorns the doubles point. Going into Saturday's action, the duo was ranked No. 12 in the nation.

"When two teams are as evenly matched as these teams were, the doubles point is always important," said A&M head coach Tim Cass. "But I was very proud of the guys today because they didn't let the doubles point fool them into thinking the match was over. It is only one point and the guys really stepped up and fought hard for the singles matches and that's what I ask from my teams."

Texas stretched its 1-0 lead when senior Keith From retired from his match on court No. 2 due to injury, and Newport lost after bringing Texas' top player, No. 13 Jean Simon, to a third set.

Aggie wins came in a dominating fashion from senior Jarin Skube, who won in straight sets on court No. 5, and freshman Ante Matijevic, who stumbled early before claiming the last two sets to pick up a, 3-6, 6-1, 6-2, victory.

Aggies

the third set to secure the win for the Aggies, 5-7, 7-5, 6-1.

"I saw Olivia [Karlikova] was down on court No. 2," Terburgh said. "I knew that if I didn't step up we might not win this match. This is my last year and I just wanted to do my best for the team."

This is the second time Terburgh has pulled off a dramatic comeback to win the decisive match this season. Earlier this year, Terburgh came back to win at Louisiana State, giving the Aggies a narrow 4-3 win over the Tigers.

Although Karlikova was down on No. 2, she rallied to win in three sets over the Wildcats' Kathy Chuda, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2.

The loss was disappointing for the Wildcats, who came within a couple of sets of spoiling the Aggies' hopes of a Big 12 title.

"I thought we played well," said Kansas State head coach Steve Bietau. "The No. 2 and No. 4 positions are places we are really strong. I thought with the first set leads in both of those matches we were in really good position to win. The A&M girls played real tough to come back and win."
