Parking, Traffic, Transportation Services. UPD officers also want students to be aware of the release tire on newer bikes. Students often their bike with a case-ened lock through the tire only, but bike tires easily slip the front wheel and take the frame.

There has been an in on-campus car crash with many of the cars occurring in residential lots 61 and 88 behind the Dining center, with trucks and SUVs among most highly targeted cars, Baron said. Students encouraged to remove able items from their cars and remember to doors.

A newly targeted by the UPD is an art phone scam that recent been reported in the This hoax is carried by phone messages let-answering machines en-aging unknowing con-sumers to return a call to an 800 code in located in Dominican Republic.

Unlike charged calls in U.S., there is no brief-od at the call's begin-ning would allow a consumer to mine the nature of the they have reached. Charge these calls begin im-mediate and may cost several dollar minute, Baron said.
