Brighton Beach Memoirs Directed by J. Kevin Doolen Starring: Keith Neagle, Susan Johnston, Lindsay Jo Hartline, Sarah Bibeau, Kelly Stolte, Ricky Wood, and Michael Santos

Brighton Beach Memoirs seems to hit the spot.

Intriguing the audience can be a challenge for actors, but the cast of Brighton Beach Memoirs goes beyond mere entertainment. The cast's natural talent keeps the audience on the edge of its seats with an incredible performance.

Recreating 1937, Brighton Beach Memoirs takes the audience back to a time of instability. The actors bring to life the brilliant story...

Brighton Beach Memoirs wrote years ago. The story of a Jewish family lives day in and day out amidst of hard times. off to war, this family is more than enough to deal with. The extensive setting of the audience a glimpse of what was like during the Depression. The serious conflict within a tight-knit family as the underlying counterbalanced with that keeps the crowd interested and amused. The main character adds another dimension to the storyline with his sarcasm in the narrative.

Perhaps what makes the enjoyable is the enthusiasm in each actor. Whether the character is sarcastic and funny or and sickly, the role is played with energy and a true passion for acting.

Be prepared to laugh in the same breath. Brighton Beach Memoirs is a gem in the to for the straight industry.

Costner to display bronze buffalo sculpture

RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) — Kevin Costner has picked a site in Deadwood for the display of a 17-piece bronze sculpture showing Lakota hunters driving a herd of buffalo along and over a bluff.

The sculpture, which was to have been the centerpiece of Costner's proposed Dunbar Resort, is to be installed on Dunbar property on the northwest edge of town.

Officials said the sculpture will not be open to the public for about a year. Plans call for building a loop road, parking lot, heritage center, interpretive trail and viewing terraces.

"The buffalo jump (sculpture) will be the centerpiece of the story of the North American and the cultures that have been dependent on it," said Pat Wyss of the Rapid City landscape architectural firm doing the site design.

Peggy Detmers, a Rapid City artist, created the sculpture. The pieces are 125 percent of life size. The sculpture has three Lakota riders on horseback and 14 bronze bison.

The giant pieces have been stored outside a Wyoming foundry where they were cast. Delays in getting the Dunbar resort built.

The Costners are bound by a contract with Detmers to put the bronze sculpture on display by 2003.
