Michelle Krinkle and Joanne Masongsong were not far behind. Krinkle beat A&M sophomore Roberta Spencer on court 6, 6-0, 6-3 while Masonsong got the win over senior Martina Nedorostova 6-2, 6-4 on court 3, securing Texas' sixth straight Big 12 tournament championship.

Kaysie Smashey finished her match against senior Olivia Karlikova, even though the match had been secured to complete the 5-0 Texas win.

After UT clinched the team match, sophomore Jessica Roland and senior Majorie Terburgh did not finish their matches. "That's the best we have ever played as a program in a conference final," Moore said. "I was more impressed with the way that we played than the

As impressive as Texas was, the Aggies never gave up hope.

"Texas came out and played very well," Terburgh said. "They came out and took care of business. It would have been nice to win the tournament, but we

The Aggies focused on the hard work that it took to get to the finals as they prepare for the upcoming NCAA tournament.

"We beat two very solid Big 12 teams and had the fight to do it," Kleinecke said. "That shows a lot of character. There is no quit in this team, and that's what I am proud of. Texas was just the bet-

The Aggies reached Sunday's finals after beating the University of Oklahoma, 4-2, on Friday. In Saturday's semifinal, the Aggies defeated third-seeded University
