Brazil, Italy score wins in openers

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP) Soccer powerhouses Brazil and Italy did the expected in completely divergent manners at the World Cup. They won their openers.

It was a struggle for Brazil in a rugged game. The only four-time world champion showed its resolve and creativity in rallying to beat Turkey 2-1 Monday night (Monday morning EDT). Italy, a three-time winner and one of the strong favorites this year, eased past Ecuador 2-0. One North American team, Mexico, had a profitable day, edging Croatia 1-0. The other, the United States, was faced with growing injury woes. Brazilian stars Ronaldo and Rivaldo scored in the second half against the Turks, who finished a classic game with just nine players. Until Rivaldo connected on a penalty kick in the 87th minute, Turkey played Brazil on even terms at Ulsan, South Korea. "When you start losing, it's always extremely difficult," Rivaldo said. "But I had full confidence in my teammates that we would be able to turn the match around, as we did.'

Turkey coach Senol Gunes angrily criticized referee Kim Young-joo, the first South Korean to work a World Cup game.

"We controlled Brazil, but we couldn't control the referee," Gunes said. "It was not a penalty, he was outside the area. We didn't get what we deserved. There was an injustice in the result."

Hundreds of Turkish fans fought with supporters of Brazil in a Berlin street brawl after the game. The fighting erupted around a giant TV screen in a plaza. There were no immediate reports of injuries.

Italy's Christian Vieri scored two first-half goals at Sapporo, Japan. Vieri, picking up where he left off in the last World Cup,
