Shuttle finally hoping to launch

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — After nearly a week of delays, NASA hoped for a break in the weather Wednesday that would allow it to launch space shuttle Endeavour to the international space station.

Endeavour will drop off a new crew at the orbiting outpost and bring home the three men who have been living there for the past six months. The shuttle's astronauts will also repair the space station's robot arm.

Forecasters on Tuesday put the chances of acceptable weather at just 40 percent. Thunderstorms remained a threat, in addition to thick clouds and possibly gusty wind.

As part of the space agency's post-Sept. 11 anti-terrorism measures, NASA kept the 5:23 p.m. launch time a secret until 24 hours in advance.

The three men aboard the space station kept busy as the waited for their ride hom Americans Daniel Bursch a Carl Walz will surpass NASA space endurance record ne week, an achievement they d not expect when they rockete into orbit in early December.

In March, NASA added month to the space statio crew's mission to give to Endeavour astronauts mo time to prepare for the wor on the robot arm. The an needs a new wrist joint, and pair of spacewalkers will per form the surgery.

Seventeen crime family arrests made

NEW YORK (AP) — Seventeen alleged members of Gambino crime family, including two brothers of John Gotti, wa arrested Tuesday and charged with such offenses as shaking down longshoremen's union and trying to extort money from toughmovie star Steven Seagal.

Prosecutors in Brooklyn said that convictions in the case wou deal a crushing blow to Mafia infiltration of unions and business along New York City's waterfront.

Those charged include Peter Gotti, brother of the imprison Dapper Don. Peter Gotti was identified as the Gambino family's or rent boss. Another Gotti brother, Richard V. Gotti, and a nephe Richard G. Gotti, were charged as well.

The alleged crimes included an attempt by Julius Nasso, a form business partner of Seagal, and others to "extort hundreds of thou sands of dollars from an individual in the film industry," con papers said. Two law enforcement officials, speaking on condition of anonymity, identified the extortion victim as Seagal.

Seagal's attorney, Martin Pollner, said the star of such action films as "Under Siege" and "Exit Wounds" had "severed his rela tionship with Mr. Nasso some time ago." The lawyer declined fu ther comment.

Nasso sued Seagal earlier this year for $60 million, accusing his of backing out of a contract to perform in four movies.

The charges also included racketeering, extortion, gambling money laundering and witness tampering. Court papers allege the defendants used threats to assume comme of Brooklyn and Staten Island chapters of the Internation

Longshoremen's Association. Once in control, they allegedly riggs union elections and secured the award of a lucrative union heat service contract for a mob-controlled company. All the defendants were awaiting arraignment. Their attorned
