

YOU'LL FEEL BETTER, FAST!

Sports & Back Clinic

Helping Ags feel better for over 20 years.

- Rehabilitation for:
- Sports Injuries
  - Vehicle Injuries
  - Orthopedic Injuries
  - Back & Neck Injuries
  - Occupational Injuries

(979) 776.2225
2011 A Villa Maria • Bryan, TX 77802

Zeta Tau Alpha

October 27, 2002 Wolf Pen
4-6 AND 6-8

Sign up October 7-11
Wehner, MSC, Blocker, Commons

*** All Proceeds go to Breast Cancer Research and Awareness!! ***
Strike A Thon

ARRESTED?
Driver's License Suspended?
DWI? DUI?
Call a Board Certified Criminal Lawyer

Lane D. Thibodeaux
Attorney at Law

Board Certified in Criminal Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization
(979) 775-5700

AGGIELAND PARADE

Come join in this community-wide event, sponsored by the Greek Week Committee and the Office of Greek Life!

The Informational	The Parade
When: Oct. 8 th	When: Nov. 2 nd
Time: 7PM	Time: 9 AM
Where: MSC 226	Where: A&M Campus
Who: Anyone interested!!

Prizes will be given away for the group with the best float, so reserve your spot at aggieparade@yahoo.com today!

Graduating Seniors
Aggieland Printing sells Graduation Announcements

2 Choices
See our brand new format with A&M seal
Order today and receive them in less than 2 weeks!

We sell

- Graduation Announcements
- Graduation Remembrance Displays
- Thank You Notes
- Personalized Graduate Notepads

Order & pay online: www.aggielandprinting.com
1902 Texas Ave. South • College Station
(Texas Avenue and Park Place, in front of the new HEB)
693-8621 M-F 8:30-5:30

Class of 2003

Get your free Senior Portrait made for the 2003 Aggieland yearbook.

Visit AR Photography
404 University Drive E., Ste. F
(In the shopping center with TCBY)
M-F 9-11:30 a.m. and 1:30-4 p.m.
or call 693-8183.

Aggieland 2003

www.amiright.com

www.pushposters.co.uk

If you've ever been caught singing the wrong lyrics to your favorite song, amiright.com is the Web site to visit before planning any karaoke sessions.

This Web site has a plethora of lyrics to review as well as their misheard counterparts. Its artist database is wide and varied, from Madonna and the Beatles to Cocteau Twins and Deee-Lite (the "groove is in the heart," not the "groovers in the hall").

Other misheard lyrics include "and I'm a a a Cheerio Girl," from Madonna's "Material Girl," and "Until the sun comes up on the ceremony cup of the fun," from Sheryl Crow's "All I Wanna Do." All she really wants to do is some fun "until the sun comes up over Santa Monica Boulevard." Prince isn't "Livin' in Quebec," but he does have a "Little Red Corvette."

And the fun doesn't stop there. The Web site lets surfers submit their homemade parodies and vote on their favorites. These cover songs from the 60s through today's popular songs. One parody of Creed's "Arms Wide Open" is titled, "The Bar's Not Open."

There is also a list of the dumbest band names, the origin of band names and a link to lyrics that are inappropriate ("I don't think you're ready for this jelly" from Destiny's Child's "Bootylicious"), repetitive (Eiffel 65's "Da ba dee, da ba dai" on "Blue") or simply misrhymed, unless sung by Cheech or Chong ("I like girls that wear Abercrombie and Fitch, I'd take her if I had one wish" on LFO's "Summer Girls").

This is the lyric lover's online lair for fun. The Web site is addicting and the laughs really never end.

-Lizette Resendez

www.imright.com

Can't get enough of "Judge Judy" and "People's Court?" Or maybe your roommate vomited all over your new John Deere sheets after a night at Northgate? Well now you can get them all back over the Internet free of charge.

At imright.com, users can file pretend lawsuits against lovers, ex's, friends, roommates and family members.

Or, if you're happy with everyone in your life and need a touch of drama, you can enter the courtroom and act as a juror on cases like, "He pimped me out to his neighbor" vs. "She did it herself."

After registering for free, you can create your alter ego by choosing from several shades of hair, types of clothes and faces. You can plead your case, and once your case is closed, you can visit the Bailiff's Boutique where you can actually buy gifts or anti-gifts.

For example, for a case against a lover, you can choose between the "Makeup Sex Assorted Condoms" gift set or a breast-enlarger soap. For those who don't have money to spend, they can send "e-pology" cards that say, "Apologies are nice, but liquor is quicker. Um buying?" or "I'm not half as sorry as you look."

The lawsuits are for fun and entertainment purposes only and you probably won't get a brand new set of John Deere sheets, but it sure beats visiting Judge Judy.

-Lizette Resendez

Although there are many Web sites on the Internet that have music-related posters, www.pushposters.co.uk is a site that has more to offer. The site's home page claims that it has the world's largest selection of music posters and after surfing the site large selection, it's clear they have the goods to back up their claim. With a wide selection of posters, calendars, patches, shirts and more, the site gives many choices to those who like decorating in a musically inclined way. Besides the conventional group photo posters of musicians, this Web site carries posters that are made up of album sleeves and singles covers, and also has hard-to-find gig posters of many alternative bands.

Although it is an England-based site, it has a large selection of posters from many American mainstream artists like Britney Spears, Creed and Eminem. While they carry most of the generic posters of these artists that you can find at most other stores, they also carry posters that depict the advertisements for singles and albums. The end result of these posters is very cool looking wall decor.

This site is a special treat to those who are big fans of European rock music, because it has a wide variety of merchandise from groups that would be otherwise hard to find in the United States. It has a vast selection of images from bands such as Kula Shaker, Charlatans, and Manic Street Preachers. The site is inclined toward rock, and has a lot of merchandise from American artists such as New Found Glory and Tool. Many alternative, metal and punk rock bands have a place on this Web site.

Another awesome aspect of this site is the wide variety of classic rock posters it carries. There is a selection from artists all the way back to Elvis' early days.

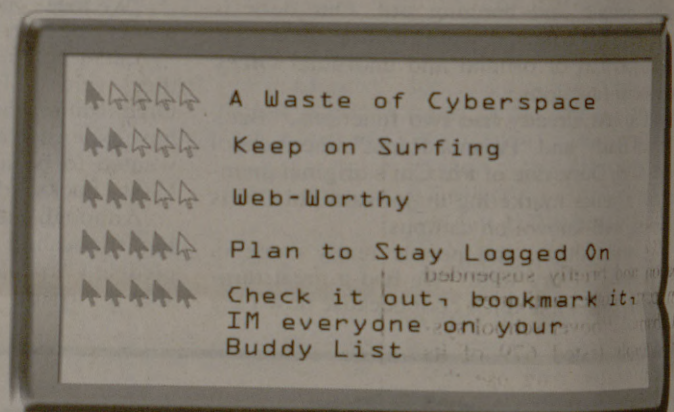

All of the cool things about this site are made even cooler because of the prices. The average 27" by 31" poster is priced at only $5.49 and 37" by 25" posters are $6.49.

Searches for merchandise from some great musicians such as the Sex Pistols and Led Zeppelin came up empty though.

It was disappointing to find that this site overlooked a few really good artists like them, but overall, the site has much to offer.

-Nishat Fatima

Chili Peppers strive towards Latin flavor

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The Red Hot Chili Peppers hope to live up to their spicy name by infusing their music with a stronger Latin zing.

"We all listen to a lot of Latin music, and we've been strongly influenced by it" the band's bass player, Flea, said Sunday in Caracas.

The Chili Peppers performed in Venezuela's capital city, the latest stop in their tour of seven Latin American countries. They've played in Mexico, Panama and Costa Rica, and will perform in Chile, Brazil and Argentina this month.

The band is promoting its new album, "By the Way," which has shot to No. 1 on the charts in more than 16 countries. The four-member band from Los Angeles plans to produce Spanish versions of songs in the future.

"By the Way" features "Cabron," a song partly sung in Spanish, which is inspired by Los Angeles

Mexican-American culture. "We'll be releasing more in Spanish," said lead singer Anthony Kiedis. "We love the energy that we get out of Latin American audiences."

School set to name building for Beamer

WHEATON, Ill. (AP) — Wheaton College plans to name a new student center for one of its alumni: United Airlines Flight 93 passenger Todd M. Beamer, who immortalized the phrase "Let's roll" during the attacks of Sept. 11, 2001.

Wheaton College, Beamer's alma mater, wants to name its proposed $21.6 million student center after him, school President Duane Litfin said Saturday.

Beamer is believed to have said the phrase just before passengers on Flight 93 apparently overcame terrorist hijackers and diverted it from crashing into its intended target in Washington, D.C. The plane crashed in rural Pennsylvania.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

The Memorial Student Center presents a week long celebration of what POP ART is today. It's poetry and music videos, movies and music...it's everything that entertains and inspires you. It's what you see on TV...
MSC Arts Awareness Week
Now-Friday

Today
Create Fun Pop Art Stuff at Rudder Fountain, 10AM-4PM
Listen to a Lunch Box Concert, Rudder Plaza, Noon-1PM
The Apartment, Bush Conference Center Auditorium, 6:30PM
Knockaround Guys, Rudder Theater, 8PM

Wednesday, Oct. 9
Create Fun Pop Art Stuff at Rudder Fountain, 10AM-4PM
Song Lyrics as Poetry, Visual Arts Gallery, 6PM
Pop Art Discussion, Visual Arts Gallery, 7PM

Stay tuned on Wednesday for Why does man create?, Visual Arts Gallery, 8PM
Watch Faat-Kine, MSC 201, 7PM

Thursday, Oct. 7
Lunch Box Concert, Rudder Plaza, Noon-1PM
Tom Chapin and Friends, Rudder Theater, 7:30PM *ticket charge
Coffeehouse with open mic, Rumour's Deli, 8:30PM

Friday, at Aggie Nights
Beat the Ag-Geeks trivia, N'Sync Dance Off, and Texas Film Festival Presents: A Night of Short Films

It's FREE!

Visit www.msc.tamu.edu or call 845-1515 for more information

Persons with disabilities, please call 845-1515 for special accommodations 3 days prior to the event.

Sponsored by MSC Arts & Entertainment Programming Council

AGGIELIFE NEWS
THE BATTALION
High s studen tested tobacco
VESTAVIA Breath mint
more for studen smoking in the b schools around administering teenagers to find have been using Opponents sa violates studen keep them out of lar activities they track. But some smoking in the ticket to more ser
"Some addic
look back to ci start of it a McAlpin, direct for EDPM, a Bi testing company.
Short of catch act, school offic had no way of p
had been smoking Testing studen spread in recent given a boost in U.S. Supreme random testing extracurricular ac
can easily be ad
battery of tests.
"I agree with old Vestavia Hill junior Rosemary ber of the march illegal, it's addic punishment sho
severe, but they st
In most cases,
testing positive fo
metabolic byprod
in the body aft chewing tobacco
as those for illeg dent's parents are or she is usually p probation and br
from sports or oth
Alabama's Ho
tem randomly te 1,500 athletes fo
past school year school students te of them for tobac Elsewhere aro
schools in Blackf
test for tobacco
participants in oth lar activities, an take driver's edu
for parking perm In Lockney, a judge recently s district's testing c the use of drug tobacco.
In Columbia school board will a testing policy th tobacco. Teenage in extracurricul
apply for perm school would be Screenings ca
for up to 10 days
ers of about a ha
cigarettes, a day Experts say it is mine would co
exposed to secon
"Tobacco is il have — it's also ly issue," said supervisor of sa
tive education
Decatur, which r testing program tobacco. "We've fidelity to let the ki gers of tobacco u
While rando
overall is being American Civil
and students' ri
addition of nicot
drawn little oppo Guidelines
month by the W office do not spe
tobacco testing.
"On tobacco same policy as drugs — it may every school a said Jennifer de secretary for t encourage paren
assess the exten
tobacco problem
Shawn Heller
tor of Students f
Policy in Washin use by teen-problem, but tes
another step in th
dents' privacy.
"We're mak prisons," he said