8 Mile

Eminem, Kim Basinger, Brittany Murphy Universal Pictures

Controversial rapper Eminem makes his acting debut in 8 Mile, a gritty and inspiring tale of an impoverished young man's fears and fight to realize his hopes of fame and fortune Jimmy Smith Jr. (Eminem), nicknamed "Rabbit," is a whitetrash factory worker who lives with his troubled mother (Kim Basinger) and his little sister in a dilapidated Detroit trailer park on 8 Mile Road, which divides the suburbs from the inner city. In this semi-autobiographical story of urban survival, Rabbit is an aspiring rapper, scribbling lyrics on napkins. At one point,

Rabbit raps to the tune of Lynyrd Skynyrd's "Sweet Home Alabama" while repairing his junk car with a friend. After choking with fear during a debut performance at The Shelter, a hip-hop club, Rabbit seeks to muster the courage to face the hostile audience again. While subduing his own personal demons, he must confront his mother's abusive boyfriend, a rival rap group bent on vengeance and a close friend's bitter betrayal. As his life spirals downward, Rabbit finds bittersweet inspiration from a young aspiring model (Brittany Murphy), who also dreams of escaping Detroit. After his friend's promises of a record deal fall through, Rabbit realizes the difference between the idle pipe dreams of youth and real opportunities to "seize the music, the moment," as the movie's theme song says. Shining moments include Rabbit defending a gay factory worker, caring for his little sister and facing his fears of public

Both fans and critics of the contentious rapper can enjoy 8 Mile and Eminem's soulful portrayal of an underprivileged rapper's struggle to survive and take a first step toward seeing his dreams come true.

Nothing seems more enticing than a supermodel and a sexy Although it should be an irresistible combination, the castist rips apart Brian de Palma's new film, Femme Fatale, The first minutes of the movie is almost without dialogue and turns our the most captivating part.

Romijn-Stamos clearly looks the part of a beautiful wo caught in an elaborate web of theft, lies and double-crossing, but acting falls flat. Banderas is cast as a sexy photographer, although he pulls it off, there is little development of his chara-Most of the supporting characters are one-dimensional and res no relief.

In some scenes, the dialogue is so unrealistic that the dramer be foiled by the audience's laughter. Even the European loa can't save the film — most of the shots are indoors.

Although the two stars are good-looking enough to maintain attention span, the twists and turns of the plot eliminate any a of real life. The storyline leads seven years into the future and giant holes where explanations should be.

When the end finally arrives, the plot hasn't filled in any ho provided any explanations. By the final scenes, the acting less-than-stellar and the lines become even cheesier. The only which salvages the end is that the movie is over.
