UH relieves Dimel of duties as head coach

(AP) HOUSTON Houston football coach Dana Dimel was fired Sunday after leading the Cougars to seven wins in three seasons. He will finish out the season Saturday against Louisville.

Dimel has a 4-7 record this season and is 7-26 overall, including an 0-11 record last year — the first winless season in Houston history. Athletic director Dave

Maggard said search a throughout the season, especially on defense.

"There are a lot of games we lost that we should have won, so I can see where he's coming from on that," running back Joffrey Reynolds said. "The athletic director knows where he wants this program to go and how he wants it handled.

"You can't fault him for trying to get the program going in the direction that it should be going, which is winning.

The Cougars blew a 28-6 second quarter lead and lost to Alabama-Birminghan 51-34 on Oct 12 They had to go down to the final minutes to beat winless Army 56-42 to snap a 14-game Conference-USA losing streak.

23-12 record before taking over at Houston. "This is not a market that we can have the kind of program that we've had in the past few years and we need to elevate that," Maggard said. "We need to have greater expectations."

The Cougars ended a 15game losing streak with a season opening victory over the Rice Owls, but they were plagued by inconsistency

Houston's most recent loss was 32-14 to South Florida on Saturday.

"To some extent it's cumulative," Maggard said. "When you look at the last three season, when you look at the last several seasons here at University of Houston, if you look specifically at this staff's productivity and results we simply haven't had enough productivity."

Perry makes good on OU-Texas football game bet

AUSTIN (AP) -Texas Gov. Rick Perry is paying up after losing a bet with the Oklahoma governor over the outcome of the Texas-OU football game. As promised, Perry is donating a side of Texas beef to an Oklahoma charity because the Sooners defeated the Longhorns 35-24 on Oct. 12. UT "While fans would have preferred a different outcome in October, Longhorn faithful should be heartened knowing this Texas beef will be going to a good cause," Perry said. Perry made the traditional friendly wager with Oklahoma Gov. Frank Keating. He is sending the beef to the Salvation Army in Keating's hometown of Tulsa. "As in past years, we thought it best to designate a worthy charity as the real winner of the bet,'

Keating said. The side of beef will be As in past years, delivered and will help feed we thought it best to an estimated designate a worthy 500 people or charity as the real more during holiday the winner of the bet. season. The Texas-
