Baseball

Farnum got the nod for game two against Creighton and did just as well as Kensing following a rough first inning when he allowed one run on one hit. Farnum also hit two batters and walked another, creating a jam with the bases loaded.

Farnum settled down and struck out Creighton freshman infielder Dave Shultz to get out of the inning and allowing only a run.

Farnum said that he was a little excited at the start of the game.

"I told myself to calm down," Farnum said. "I was really anxious at the start but settled down."

He did indeed calm down, allowing one run and three hits in six innings and striking out seven batters.

Johnson said he felt like Farnum would settle into his game and have a strong outing.

"He just got smarter and started working his pitches better," Johnson said.

The Aggies would give Farnum all of the run support he needed in the top of the third by playing small ball.

Freshman outfielder John Infante led off the inning with a walk followed by two bunt singles from Alexander and freshman infielder Cliff Pennington setting up a big inning for the Aggies with the bases loaded and no outs.

A&M scored three runs in the frame to take the lead, 3-1.

Offensively, junior right fielder Cory Patton led the way for the Aggies in game two going 2-for-4 with three RBI and a two-run home run in the top of the sixth inning that squeaked over the wall and just inside the foul pole down the right field line, giving the Aggies a 7-1 lead going into the seventh inning.

The Jays scored a run in the bottom of the seventh but it was of little use as the Aggies came away with the win, 7-2.

The Aggies' next game will be a doubleheader today against the University of Utah and the University of California - Los Angeles. A&M will continue its home stand with the two games at Olsen Field. The first game against Utah is scheduled to begin at 5 p.m. The nightcap against the UCLA Bruins is scheduled for 8 p.m.

field, easily clearing the fence for a two-run homer. The Aggies scored at least two runs every inning, helping clear the path for Rippee's second complete game of the day.

"I thought the most positive thing to come out of the tournament was our comeback win against Southeast Louisiana," said A&M Head Coach Jo Evans. "I thought we lacked intensity up to that point, so hopefully, the comeback will be the catalyst to help us feel the sense of urgency we need to feel every game."

For Collins, the tournament was the culmination of the Aggies' attempts at working on putting together consecutive hits.

"We wanted to put hits together," she said. "At Southwest Texas, we outhit them, but couldn't score runs. We have been working to get more on top of the ball, and this weekend, we did a lot better staying focused on base hits, rather than trying for the power hits."

On the opposite end of the spectrum, Prairie View went 0-4 in the tournament for an 0-6 overall record.

"We still need to cut down on our mistakes, but I think it was important for our young kids to see the difference between high school and college ball," said Prairie View Head Coach A. D. James. "I enjoyed the tournament, and I think it will help us get ready for SWAC conference play."

The Aggies will not have long to savor their wins as No. 4 Michigan will come to town Wednesday to try to cool off a streaking Aggie team.
